nighttime activities that include camping, bicycling and star gazing. Illegal and disruptive activity is never allowed. There are specific locations in open space, namely the rock formations in the Bradford open space area and Brannon

Gearhart Park, that are attractive late-night gathering spots where vandalism and disturbances to neighboring properties are routine. To address this problem stricter curfew rules have been put in place for the areas on and around these rock formations (Click on the images to expand maps).

The rock formations are closed at sunset. Any persons encountered by the rangers in the closure areas after sunset may be issued a contact notice and asked to leave the area. Repeat offenses could lead to a hearing with the Board and
