Email Addresses Needed for Resident Survey

The Ken-Caryl Ranch Community Planning Committee is organizing a community-wide survey this coming fall. The intent is to send the survey electronically to all residents who have an email address in our accounting system. A postcard will be mailed to those residents without an email address. We would like to gather as many email addresses as possible. If you don't currently receive Master Association dues statements via email, then we encourage you to send us your email address. Please send an email to Victoria DeSair at victoriad@kcranch.org and she can add you to the database.

taxpayer? Despite a potentially large increase in your assessed value, you may not pay much more this year because the legislature will adjust the rate down.

What does this mean for the Ken-Caryl Ranch Metropolitan District? Property taxes account for just over half of the Metro District's revenue. An increase in property tax revenue means an increase in revenue for the Metro District, which helps with programs and services for the community. The effect of Gallagher will mean not as much increase to Metro District revenue as we would otherwise receive if the property values went up but the assessment rate was not adjusted.

So, what is the adjusted rate? How big is the difference? Well, at the time of this writing, the legislature was in its final days of session, and the rate was yet to be determined, hence the uncertainty. The most recent projection is the rate will drop from 7.9 percent to 7.2 percent. Many special districts in the area have been expressing concern over "losing" money because of Gallagher. That will not be the reality for most front-range districts because the property values have increased enough to offset the assessment adjustment. The Metro District will still see an increase in property tax revenues, but not as big of an increase as it would if the assessment rate was left alone. With operational costs increasing each year as well, there is a balancing act to consider as we budget and plan for the future. The Metro District staff and board will be focusing on creating stronger financial sustainability and using these additional resources in the best interest of the community.

Property Taxes: The Uncertainty of a Certain Thing

By KCRMD District Manager Melissa Daruna

There is that old adage of only two things being certain in life. This year, however, the certainty of our property tax is, well, a little uncertain. By now you have likely received your most recent tax assessment and may have noticed a bit of a jump. You may have also heard a lot of buzz about a little-known Colorado Constitutional Amendment called Gallagher. This is where the uncertainty lies.

Under the Gallagher Amendment, residential property taxes are prevented from increasing faster than commercial properties by adjusting the assessment rate. What does this mean for you as a

Cougar Trail Construction

The Ken-Caryl Ranch Master Association's trail construction contractor, Singletrack Trails, started work at the end of April on Cougar Trail. They have two teams working on the project - one at the bottom (hand crew) and one at the top (machine crew). As of May 7, the upper crew had finished about 2,100 feet of the trail. The crew at the bottom had constructed about 1,030 feet. As of May 7, the project is about 28 percent complete, with approximately 3,130 feet constructed. The project is expected to be completed near the end of May. Cougar Trail can be found on the Ken-Caryl Ranch Open Space Trail Map, which is available at the Ranch House, Community Center or Dakota Lodge. It's also available at www.ken-carylranh.org under the Open Space tab.

Resolving Issues

By Community Standards Administrator Jenny Bernal

There are many ways to resolve an issue in your neighborhood. The best way to handle a concern is to speak with your neighbor calmly, directly and with the intent to resolve the problem. Going into any discussion with anger and emotion will result in more frustration. I know for certain that not all neighbors are receptive to feedback and may not be as willing to resolve. I also know it's not always easy to approach a new person, especially when there is a problem to solve.

I've had many years of training and experience with this, and I still get worked up about things. However, it's an important step in having a good relationship with your neighbor. Communicate with your neighbors in a way that suspends judgement and focuses on a resolution. You never know what someone else is going through, and they may not realize the frustration you are experiencing.

Most complaints I get can be easily resolved from neighbor to neighbor and often have nothing to do with the covenants. You have to live with them, and they have to live with you. Why not try to make it as pleasant as possible? We are still here to help you with your concerns, but if you can try to talk it out first, it will go a long way in the peaceful enjoyment of your community.

Another complaint I get is from that nasty old covenant letter. "She must just be waiting around for someone to leave their trash can out." Well, no. I actually do not have an agenda to harass people about their trash cans or any other violation. The reality is that everyone on Ken-Caryl Ranch pays dues and agreed to be held to the Rules and Regulations and the Master Declaration of Covenants when they purchased their property. Accountability may be painful, but it's not life threatening here.

Most rules are pretty black and white, while some allow room for reasonable temporary accommodation. If you have received a letter in error, it happens; I am human after all. A quick call or email is all that is needed and will likely be met with a sincere apology and prompt correction to the account. If you have received the violation letter and you have a special circumstance, call me and let's see if there is something we can do. Not communicating is worse. When the Covenant Committee conducts a hearing, one of the biggest concerns they have is whether or not the homeowner has responded to the letters, calls or emails sent. We do not want to have to assess fines or revoke privileges, but the lack of response leaves little room for negotiation. It is the homeowner's responsibility to know and follow the covenants. If you receive a letter, it is sent in the spirit of educating those who don't know the rule and reminding those who may have forgotten. The documents and all the information you need to know is available to you 24/7 on our website www.ken-carylranh.org. I am always happy to field questions and to take your concerns. I can be reached at jennyb@kcranch.org or 303-979-1876, ext. 113.

Joint Study Session

On May 2, the Ken-Caryl Ranch Master Association and Metropolitan District Boards held a Joint Study Session and discussed the following items:

- A new Ken-Caryl Ranch chapter of the Optimists Club came to present information on the organization. The Optimist Club is a volunteer organization that works with local youth on a variety of projects.
- The Boards discussed the use of e-bikes in the open space as an Other Power Driven Mobility Device (OPDMD) under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). At its April 25 business meeting, the KCRMD Board adopted a new guideline permitting e-bikes on public open space if being used as an OPDMD under ADA. The KCRMA Board agreed to consider the matter and have an action item at its next business meeting on May 16.
- There was a brief discussion on an inquiry from the Plains Metropolitan District to allow their residents full access to the facilities operated by KCRMD. Staff agreed to provide more data on current usage at the Ranch House and Bradford Pool by those residents for future discussion.
- KCRMD Board Vice President Bob Generoli provided an update on the Plains Metropolitan District lawsuit settlement. KCRMD and PMD signed a settlement agreement that was submitted to the court last week. Both parties are waiting for a final ruling from the judge.
- Open Space Manager Sean Warren gave a presentation on the drainage project at Brannon Gearhart Park. The KCRMA Board will discuss the details of the drainage options at their next business meeting.
- Staff gave an update on the community survey development by the Community Planning Committee. Some Board members gave suggestions on questions and topics.

Wire Fencing and Deer

By Open Space Ranger Matt Owen

I wanted to bring to your attention a maintenance reminder for fences with welded wire on properties. A recent incident involving a 3-4 year old mule deer doe with a hind leg stuck at the top of a split rail fence with welded wire and laying on its back was called in to the Ranger Office. Ranger Gary Norton and I responded in time and were able to free the deer's leg by cutting the wire away from the hoof. The deer was able to run away with only a slight limp.

Over the past several years I have had to assist several deer in the same way with their back leg stuck in the same fashion, one leg caught between the wood plank/welded wire. The deer survived the initial trauma, but one never knows the full extent of the injury as the deer limps or attempts to run away. In a separate incident, a young mule deer had the same problem happen but encountered a broken leg while cutting it out of the fence. Unfortunately, the deer had to be euthanized by the Rangers with a rifle as the injuries were too much for survival.

I would like to remind residents about being diligent in maintaining their split rail fence with the welded wire (see pictures). In each incident with the deer getting caught, the welded wire was pulled away from the wood due to missing fence staples/U nails. Make sure to periodically walk the fence line and check to make sure the fencing staples or U nails are keeping the wire tight to the wood, which will avoid accidents where deer will get caught while jumping over the fences. If you have any questions or concerns, feel free to email me at matto@kcranch.org or call the Rangers at 303-979-1876, ext. 170.

Welded wire should be attached to split-rail fences with staples or U nails.

This photo shows welded wire that is not properly attached to the fence, putting deer at risk.

Proposed Resolution Permitting Outdoor Speakers

At its June 20 meeting, the Master Association Board will discuss and vote on a proposed resolution to allow outdoor speakers on properties on Ken-Caryl Ranch. The proposed resolution is: "NOW THEREFORE, Be it RESOLVED by the Ken-Caryl Ranch Master Association Board of Directors that the use of outdoor speakers on Ken-Caryl Ranch properties is approved as long as they are operated in conformance with the Jefferson County Noise Ordinance." If you have any questions or comments, contact Chris Pacetti at chrisp@kcranch.org or 303-979-1876, ext. 116.

Informational Open House for New Trail Project: East Plum Thicket-Manzanita Social Trail Conversion

An open house will be held on June 8 from 6-8 p.m. at Dakota Lodge to view plans and answer questions about a new trail project located in the interior open space areas around the neighborhoods immediately north of Bradford K-8 North School (formerly called Bradford Intermediate School). Existing social trails, or unofficial trails, will be modified and in some cases relocated, to create a sustainable trail network that will be included in the open space maintenance program.

Volunteer Trail Coordinators Jeff Lyslo and Dan Mullins have developed a detailed plan, which can be seen on the community website at www.ken-caryl-ranch.org (Open Space tab, then Plans & Studies) that looks at current conditions, analyzes design options and provides recommendations for multiple existing social trail segments between Deerwood Drive and Valley Parkway and between Woodruff and Mountain Laurel Drive (see map). The plans will also be on display at the open house, and staff will be on hand to answer questions and take community comments.

The Ken-Caryl Ranch Open Space Committee would like to review community input on the project as they form their recommendation to the Board of Directors. If the board decides to move forward on the project, the earliest construction start date would be spring/summer of 2018. If you are unable to attend the open house, please send your comments to Sean Warren at seanw@kcranch.org.

Plains Metropolitan District Lawsuit Officially Settles

On Monday, May 8, District Court Judge Russell granted a joint motion for Entry of Stipulated Supplemental Order and Judgement between the Plains Metropolitan District (PMD) and the Ken-Caryl Ranch Metropolitan District (KCRMD) for $3.5 million. This is a settlement 13 years in the making, and we wanted to provide a timeline as well as an update of what happens next.

Below is a brief summary of the litigation timeline:

- 1985
 - PMD drafts a service plan as required for the formation of the district. The service plan called for PMD to provide a swimming pool, tennis courts and ballfields.
- 2003
 - PMD considers dissolving in 2004 when their bond is paid off.
 - KCRMD requests PMD follow through with providing the recreation facilities promised to the community in the 1985 service plan.
- 2004
 - KCRMD obtains a court order to include the PMD properties into the KCRMD boundaries.
 - PMD files suit against KCRMD in order for PMD to continue to exist rather than dissolve and be assumed by KCRMD.
 - Subsequently, KCRMD files suit to force PMD to provide the recreation opportunities promised to the community in the 1985 service plan.
- 2004-2008
 - KCRMD and PMD attempt to negotiate a settlement of the issues related to the service plan and recreation facilities in an effort to avoid litigation.
- 2008
 - After failed attempts to settle the dispute, KCRMD continues litigation efforts to enforce the 1985 PMD service plan.
 - Trial takes place July 28 – Aug. 6, 2008, but a ruling was not issued until the start of 2009.
- 2009
 - In January, the trial court ruled in favor of PMD. KCRMD subsequently files an appeal.
- 2010
 - The Court of Appeals unanimously overturns the trial court's decision and rules in favor of KCRMD. The ruling was passed back to the lower court to determine the practicality of PMD paying for and building some or all of the recreation facilities valued at $3.5 million.
 - PMD petitioned the Colorado Supreme Court for an appeal.

- The Colorado Supreme Court declined to hear the case for the second time, making the 2010 ruling in favor of KCRMD final.
- 2015-2017
- PMD and KCRMD negotiate the terms of the settlement through various meetings and court hearings.
 - In April 2017, KCRMD and PMD come to an agreement on a settlement.
 - In May 2017, Judge Russell of the District Court grants the motion, making the settlement final.

An initial payment of $770,000 is due to KCRMD by May 18. The second payment of $278,000 is due to KCRMD on Aug. 1. Moving forward, PMD will pay KCRMD $300,000 annually until the full settlement amount has been reached.

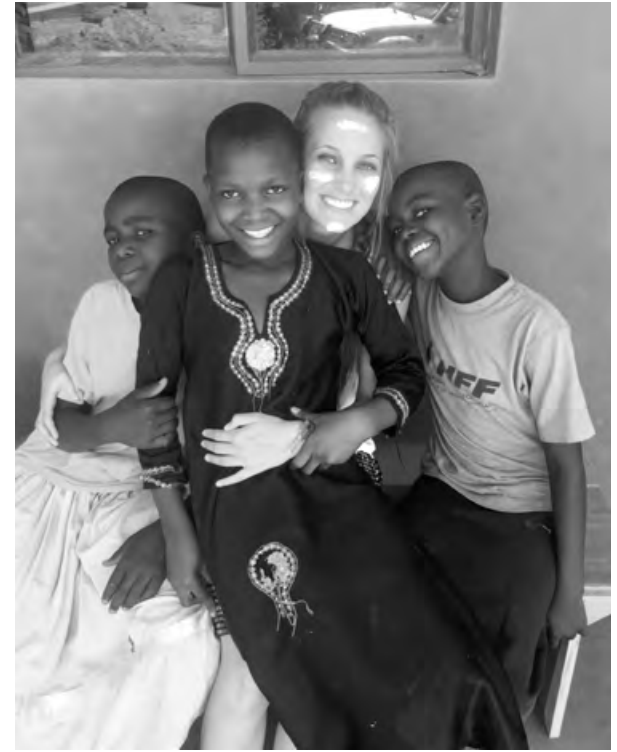

The KCRMD Board is thrilled to have reached this settlement and looks forward to putting the funds to good use for the community. The settlement requires the funds to be used for the design and construction of one or more new, refurbished, or renovated swimming pools; one or more new, refurbished or renovated tennis courts; or one or more new, refurbished, or renovated ball fields. Please continue to check Life at Ken-Caryl, the e-news, website, Facebook and Twitter for more updates as we begin the planning the process. If you have any questions, contact District Manager Melissa Daruna at melissad@kcranch.org or 303-979-1876, ext. 136.

Resident Collecting Over-the-Counter Medication for African Mission Trip

Kristin Cover, class of 2013 graduate from Chatfield Senior High School and lifelong resident of Ken-Caryl Valley, is excited to announce that she will be returning to Kirugu, Uganda this coming summer for mission work.

During her time in Uganda, Kristin will be working to start a nursing clinic at the Rays of Grace Primary School. She is reaching out to the community in hopes of collecting over-the-counter medication to bring with her to Uganda. These medications can be generic or brand name, any form and any size. The following medications and supplies are needed: mosquito bed nets, Ibuprofen, Tylenol liquid/pills, Advil liquid/pills, allergy medication, cold medication, flu medication, toothbrushes and toothpaste. Children-approved medications would be ideal, but adults in Kirugu will benefit from these medications as well so adult versions are also welcome. Anything you can donate will be a huge help and greatly appreciated. Donation boxes are set up at both the Community Center located at 1 Club Drive and the Ranch House located at 7676 S. Continental Divide Road. Donations will be accepted until Sunday, May 21. Contact Kristin with any other questions you may have: 720-984-7020 or at kristincover@msn.com. Thank you in advance for your help!

Making a Tangible Difference in Our Own Backyard

Submitted by Lauren Apple, Stepping Stone Support Center

An extraordinary organization, Stepping Stone Support Center, is changing lives right here in Littleton, and you should know more about them.

You likely know someone with an intellectual or developmental disability. A child with intellectual or developmental disabilities grows to an adult and typically remains at home in the care of their parent or parents. But what happens to these adults as their parents age? According to the Department of Labor and Training, there are an estimated 11,000 individuals with developmental disabilities living in Colorado today and nearly all are living with an aging caregiver (age 60 and older). As this generation of caregivers continues to age, many of their adult children with developmental disabilities may be at risk of institutionalization or homelessness due to the shortage of housing and support services. Enter Stepping Stone!

Stepping Stone Support Center is a service agency in Littleton for adults with developmental disabilities. The brainchild of Chatfield Senior High and Colorado State University graduate Bryn Galisewski, the idea evolved from observing the extreme lack of services available to this amazing group of people in the Littleton area. Having worked with classmates and friends with developmental disabilities at Chatfield Senior High, Bryn was inspired to pursue a degree in Human Development and Family Studies with a focus on Occupational Therapy at CSU. While Bryn was moving on in her education and life, her friends from Chatfield with development disabilities found few options for the next phase of their lives. Their day-to-day experiences became stagnant and generally boring. Bryn's vision for Stepping Stone took on urgency.

Launched in 2013, Stepping Stone Support Center offers prevocational day programs for adults with developmental disabilities right here in Littleton. Stepping Stone's guiding principle is that adults with developmental disabilities have an unlimited potential to contribute to local communities, but seldom have the opportunity to explore their own potential. Stepping Stone gives these individuals a chance to put that potential into action by providing work opportunities and job simulations to empower participants to live more independent lives.

Here's how it works: The Stepping Stone "Co-Op" gives participants practical vocational training alongside their peers to build skills and their resumes. The co-op is made up of five teams, which operate as micro-businesses:

- Food Bank Team: Columbine Hills Food Bank. The food bank is open to the public on Fridays. Throughout the week they are busy soliciting for donations, stocking and doing inventory, sorting food bank goods, marketing the food bank, and picking up Food Bank of the Rockies orders.
- Culinary Team: A Taste of Love. This team builds culinary and marketing skills. They learn how to bake using seasonal ingredients and learn about locally-sourced ingredients. They also prep and cook lunches sold to the co-op one day a week. Throughout the week, the culinary team takes inventory, shops, researches, and develops new recipes and reviews financials on how their items are selling.
- Beading Team: Loom of Love. The beading team creates unique and original bracelets. Weaving helps the participants work on fine motor skills, dexterity and creativity. The process also enhances skills like counting, sorting, teamwork and patience. Throughout the week, the beading team takes inventory, purchases materials, creates templates/designs for their bracelets, identifies outlets for sales, and fulfills orders.
- Product Team: A Touch of Love. The product team makes personal care products including lip balms, lotions and candles. Weekly this team focuses on inventory, ordering new materials, marketing, research and development, task analysis, and creativity.
- Coffee Shop Team: A Latte Love. The coffee shop is open to the public each Thursday morning from 9:30-11 a.m. Serving coffee, tea and baked goods, this team works throughout the week to prepare for Thursday by taking inventory, purchasing supplies and marketing their coffee shop through Facebook (<https://www.facebook.com/SteppingStoneSC/>). The Latte Love team also makes and serves coffee for the food bank community members each week.

Products from Stepping Stone co-op are available online at <https://mkt.com/SteppingStoneCoop>. All profits are shared exclusively among the participants – with the goal of providing participants the skills and thus the opportunity to live as independently as possible. Since opening in 2013, Stepping Stone Support Center has grown each year and currently serves more than 100 individuals with developmental disabilities.

What's Next?

Stepping Stone Support Center recognizes that true independence can only be achieved with both work/life skills and access to a safe and affordable living environment. It's with the living environment in mind that Stepping Stone is taking on the ambitious goal of developing a residential solution for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities. That project, Stepping Stone Communities, is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization whose mission is the creation of intentional communities in which adults with developmental disabilities can live independently in a safe, supportive and integrated community.

The individuals in the intellectual and developmental disability community are first and foremost ADULTS, and like adults, the individuals that Stepping Stone serves deserve the opportunity to live independently in a place of their own. The emphasis of the facility will be on independent living with opportunities to make social connections in a family-like atmosphere.

Through the Stepping Stone Center co-op and the five "micro-businesses" it runs, Stepping Stone has become truly connected to the Littleton community. And now, Stepping Stone Communities will take another step to connect with our community by bringing back the Ken-Caryl Home Tour this October. All the proceeds of the Home Tour will be donated to Stepping Stone Communities. Stay tuned for more details!

Bradford Apple Orchard

Submitted by Mark Rieger, Ken-Caryl Ranch Historical Society

Over 150 years ago, Robert Boyles Bradford moved from Denver to a now historic part of Ken-Caryl Ranch after running R B Bradford & Company, a successful merchant retail and shipping business in Denver.

Bradford moved to the area in 1861 where there was a two-story stone house and multiple wooden buildings. He started the Bradford Toll Road to guide settlers and miners through the mountains, and he planted 40 apple and peach trees on his property as part of a Homestead Act Application in 1870. Bradford most likely died before his apple and peach trees bore fruit, as the projected flowering of newly planted apple trees is six to seven years. Future owners of the historic property, including James and Charlotte Perley, surely benefited from abundant crops of the Ben Davis variety apples, evidenced by the fact that the old apple trees are still producing fruit 150 years later.

Between 15 and 20 apple trees grew to full size, based on the nine apple trees that are still standing in the orchard behind the Bradford Perley House and the deep impressions in the soil, as evidence of trees that have since died and been removed.

In order to preserve the Bradford legacy, the Ken-Caryl Ranch Historical Society Committee commissioned Scott Skogerboe to propagate new generations of Ben Davis variety apple trees by grafting clippings from the 1860s trees to Russian root balls. Three new tree grafts were propagated and planted in the orchard in 2010 and another three in 2012, all protected by wire cages. Another round of three trees were planted in 2014, but they did not survive the late spring freeze of 2015.

In 2016, all nine of the 1860s trees blossomed with white flowers, bearing between 30 and 120 apples per tree. This spring all nine trees blossomed with white flowers, indicating a potentially productive crop of apples for the summer of 2017. We will have to wait to see if the late April 2017 snow storm and freeze damaged this year's fruit production. For the first season, two of the 2010 plantings produced white flower blossoms and could bear fruit, after seven years since planting. This was a historic event.

And once again this spring, the Historical Society cut live branches and commissioned Scott Skogerboe to graft those clippings to Russian root balls, with a projected planting date in the fall of 2018.

Thanks to the Ken-Caryl Ranch Open Space and Parks staff for maintaining the Bradford Apple Orchard and to the Historical Society for continuing the legacy.

Koelbel Library Will Feature Work of Ken-Caryl Watercolor Art Teacher

For the month of June, the Koelbel Library in Centennial will once again host artist Chuck Danford and about 15 of his landscape and wildlife watercolor paintings. This well-known Colorado artist has spent 18 years since his last show at Koelbel perfecting his medium and teaching others watercolor painting.

Chuck is widely recognized for his 35-year career in graphic design. Many of the graphic identities his company developed have stood the test of time and are still in use today. Bonfils Blood Center, Saunders Construction, FirstBank, Cherry Creek Schools, and Foothills Park and Recreation to name a few.

After retiring, Chuck started a second career as a watercolor artist showing and selling his work in Breckenridge, Georgetown, Edwards, Cherry Creek and elsewhere. His other interest has been teaching design and watercolor painting. He has been in demand to teach workshops and classes for various art organizations, and he teaches weekly classes at the Ken-Caryl Ranch House.

Painting landscapes and wildlife is truly his passion. "It's an emotional experience; I love nature," Chuck said. Each painting exhibits a genuine enthusiasm for the outdoors and the natural wonders of the world.

When asked about his paintings, Chuck said, "There's an energy in watercolor. It's an exciting process. Watercolor is unpredictable and challenging; you may even create something from a mistake."

Chuck's work can be found in many private and public collections and is currently exhibiting in local and regional shows. More of his work can be seen at www.chuckdanford.com. To find out about the watercolor classes he teaches at the Ranch House, visit www.ken-carylranh.org.

Update from Jeffco Open Space on South Valley Park

Submitted by Jeffco Open Space Park Ranger Supervisor Martin Barwick

Jeffco Open Space exists to preserve open space, protect park and natural resources, and provide healthy, nature-based experiences. As you plan your next visit to South Valley Park, we encourage you to keep safety, respect and park stewardship in mind. Here are some things we want you to know before you go:

The entire park is STAY ON TRAIL. We enforce this regulation for safety and natural and cultural resource protection purposes. The hogbacks have great appeal to park visitors. As a fatality proved in early 2015, these angled sedimentary rocks are dangerous. They also provide important habitat for cliff nesting birds. Your desire to illegally climb could destroy a nest. Spooking a bird off a nest can leave eggs vulnerable to nest predators, extreme heat or extreme cold. Climbing on the rocks is a violation of the Natural Resource Closure regulation and will result in a summons and fine.

Only use legal access points to enter and exit the park.

Trailheads

Deer Creek Road
South Valley Road

Pedestrian/bike/equestrian access points:

Rattlesnake Gulch Trail (south)
Prairie Falcon Trail (from South Valley Road)
Coyote Song Trail (from the north)
Lyons Back Trail (from the east)

The only legal access to the land west of South Valley Road and north of Deer Creek Canyon Road is along the paved Valley View Trail. Entering the park by any other means is considered trespassing or a violation of the closed area park regulation and could result in a summons and fine.

New HTF fencing and a new park gate will help enhance visitor safety and protect park resources. After 16 years of trying to communicate the need to stay on trail and keep off the rocks in many ineffective ways, JCOS installed HTF fencing along the trail as a visual barrier/reminder to keep people safe and away from sensitive resources. Our new park gate provides added enforcement of our park hours. The park gate automatically closes one hour after sunset and re-opens one hour before. For safety reasons, we ask that all visitors obey park hours no matter how you are entering the park.

Love 'em, Leash 'em

Leashing your dog is the safe and respectful way to enjoy the park. Unleashed dogs have an increased chance of negative encounters with rattlesnakes, coyotes and bears. They also have an increased chance of ruining another park visitor's visit. Not everyone or every dog loves dogs. Keep this in mind as you approach other dog walkers.

See something, say something. In emergent situations, call 911. If you note illegal campsites, illegal campfires, dumping, off-leash dogs, etc., please call the Jeffco Dispatch non-emergency number at 303-277-0211.

For more information about South Valley Park, please visit the Jeffco Open Space website at www.jeffco.us/open-space. A park map is available at <http://jeffco.us/open-space/parks/south-valley-park/>.

HAWK CONSTRUCTION INC.

REMODELING IN THE KEN-CARYL COMMUNITY FOR 25 YEARS

"We hired Hawk to complete a remodel of the first floor of our 1979 suburban home, and could not have been more pleased with the result. Throughout the process, Dave Hawk and his entire team were the consummate professionals, keeping the schedule on schedule and on budget. The quality of workmanship is obvious, but it is the quality of their people and the excellent working relationship we built with them, that really makes Hawk stand out above the crowd."

Love Wins: The Story Behind The Michael and Cora Betts Legacy Foundation

Submitted by Lisa Crotty, Ken-Caryl Resident

In January 2008, life quickly changed for Ken-Caryl residents Mike and Debbie Betts when an automobile accident claimed the lives of two of their children, Michael, 14, and Cora, 4.

The Betts and their two other children, Aspen and PJ, were blessed by the overwhelming support of family, friends and the community surrounding them. This outpouring of love and kindness inspired them to launch The Michael and Cora Betts Legacy Foundation, a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization, only a short time after the tragedy. The Betts created the foundation in the hopes of helping families and children in similar situations to cope. The couple began fundraising through events committed to capturing the spirit of the lives of Michael and Cora. The Michael and Cora Betts Legacy Foundation continues to carry out its mission of changing the world one child at a time, guided by the tagline "Everything is going to be OK."

"Everything is going to be OK"

While still a bachelor in his 20s, life had not yet presented any real big challenges for Mike. But during this time, a defining moment happened that has since helped him through some more trying times. As Mike recalls, one day while in the shower he unexpectedly heard a voice say, "Everything is going to be OK."

He admits while the meaning was not clear at the time, and maybe it felt a bit crazy, those words have always stuck with him. From the loss of his father to later coping with the heartache of losing two children, reflecting on that moment and hearing the words, "Everything is going to be OK," helped him to regain a sense of calmness. The phrase became the driving force behind his ability to carry on, no matter what came his way. Mike and Debbie continue to express sheer gratitude to all the family, friends, classmates, neighbors and even total strangers who helped them through this devastating loss, now believing "Everything IS going to be OK."

Inspiring Moments

Mike reflected on that time just after the accident: "When we first returned home, the air seemed thicker; it was a really strange feeling. It felt as though we were just blanketed in prayer." Blessed by emotional and financial support, the pockets of inspiration soon followed. Mike recalled a letter sent by one of Michael's classmates that said, "I'm so sad, I don't know what to do. Michael was the only one who would sit next to me at lunch." After reading the classmate's note, Mike decided "the cultural architect in him would dedicate himself to making the world a better place."

Debbie said, "Michael was an awesome big brother, always a peacekeeper. He was especially kind to his little sisters, just so good at making them giggle." She added, "Always smiling, Cora was just a happy-go-lucky little girl."

They wanted these traits to continue somehow and put the funds to good use; they wanted to give back. A few weeks after the accident, the Betts found themselves at a Super Bowl party when Mike's brother Doug exclaimed, "Let's do something; let's change the world!" Not long after, The Michael and Cora Betts Legacy Foundation was born.

Finding Purpose

In the early days after creating the foundation, Mike recalls having a discussion during his morning commute with a co-worker, determined he needed a more specific plan. He began highlighting all the ways he wanted to give back, to help children like his son, PJ, and daughter, Aspen, who had to carry on despite losing two siblings. He wanted a place where kids who had experienced this kind of loss could find comfort in the grieving process. As he continued to spell out his mission to this co-worker, a woman sitting nearby chimed in, "Excuse me, I don't mean to eavesdrop, but I just can't help but let you know about a special place that seems to have everything you're looking for. It's called Judi's House."

Kindness Returned

Mike began researching Judi's House and in the process, yet another beautiful memory of his children came to mind. He remembered a family celebration a few years before. The Betts Family had been enjoying a meal at Gashos when they noticed a celebrity among them. It was then Bronco quarterback, now turned TV and Radio Football Analyst/Commentator, Brian Griese. As avid Bronco fans, the Betts children were thrilled when he gave them a warm greeting and his autograph. Brian

Griese founded Judi's House as a result of his own childhood trauma of losing his mother to breast cancer when he was 12. For the Betts, in a quest to carry out their mission and in remembering this act of kindness, it became clear that supporting Judi's House completed the circle. Established to help grieving children, Judi's House remains a place committed to helping kids cope throughout the grieving process--sharing this vision: "No child should be left alone in grief."

Staying the Path

This year marks the 10th year for The Michael and Cora Betts Legacy Golf tournament, notably the most successful of the Betts' fundraising efforts. The event will be Monday, June 26 at 12:30 p.m. at Deer Creek Golf Course. The event draws in memories of Michael and Cora at the must-see snowboard challenge hole -- Michael enjoyed golf and snowboarding and Cora was the Betts family's "little Kangaroo." Importantly, all proceeds benefit Judi's House.

In the days after the accident, it may have been easier for the Betts to surrender. They had received numerous warnings about how difficult it was to start up a non-profit, hearing things like, "Don't get your hopes up, the numbers will show you just how many non-profits fail." Fortunately, the Betts did not give up. Their story remains a local, real-life example of the kind of greatness achieved when the love in your heart guides your mission. Ten years and $125,000 in funds raised later, their commitment speaks for itself. Join in the fun by supporting this worthy cause--by sponsoring, donating or registering to play in the tournament. Dedicated to carrying forward Michael and Cora's inspiration, love wins. Dear Editor:

On May 6, I had the occasion to witness first-hand what great services our Master Association can provide for us. The annual Community Recycling Event was held with more than 400+ residents taking advantage. As the citizen volunteer coordinator of this event, I wanted to reach out and thank all those who made it all possible.

Chris Pacetti, Master Association Director, did all of the initial work, coordinating the various businesses, and spent all day at the event insuring that all went as planned. R2 Stewardship for the eighth year brought so many helpers to unload all the items, it made the whole process move swiftly. Thank you to our dedicated trash guys from Waste Connections for coming out on a Saturday to crash all those big trash items. And a shout-out to our very own Metropolitan District Parks employees for running the chipper all day long: D.G. Hinckley, Rick Plack, Keegan Plack, Kyle Ellis and Ryan Hubbard. Thanks to Eagle Automotive for recycling our tires and to GreenSheen for taking all that old latex paint off our hands.

A special thanks to my friends and neighbors who volunteered: Diane Sanelli, Charles and Phyllis Kalish, Steven and Sherry Engleman, Glenn Goodwin, Carol Grape, Buddy Schweig, Lisa Kanter, Krista Rahe and Terry Lumme politely directed what seemed like millions of vehicles to the correct recycle line and assisted with their egress. Throughout it all, they kept their sense of humor! We must also mention the Jefferson County Sheriff Reserve who kept the traffic on Continental Divide moving smoothly. And last but not least, thank you to all those residents who cleaned out and loaded up!

"It has truly been a privilege to work with Annette the past 15 years," said Master Association Executive Director Chris Pacetti. "Her dedication to Ken-Caryl Ranch, the Master Association and most importantly the people of the Ranch has been an example to us all. I will miss her in the office and hope that she will check in on her regular walks around the Ranch."

Over the last few weeks, Annette has been training her replacement, Elizabeth Modisette. Make sure to read the next issue of Life at Ken-Caryl for a feature article on Elizabeth.
