Ranch House Pool Project

By Pat Malloy, Co-Interim District Manager

The summer camps and pools are closed, Doggie Dip Day is upon us, the fall sports leagues are practicing in the parks, and the kids have returned to the classrooms. All the high school and college-aged workers that were here through the summer helping in Recreation and Parks have returned to their studies. It seems that summer 2019 just flew by.

As I write this column, the sound of laughter coming from the Ranch House Pool has been replaced by the growl of heavy equipment and large trucks. The Ranch House Pool replacement has definitely begun.

The pool contractor, A.D. Miller, began setting up protective fencing, erosion control systems, and staging his equipment in early August, the day after the pool closed. The concrete deck has been removed, and the pool shell is being sliced and diced and hauled away in trucks. The wrought iron fencing and the aluminum pool shell will all be recycled. The big winners in the early phases of this construction project are the preschool students at the Ranch House. They have a clear view out their window and are being provided with hours of entertainment.

Make sure to follow the Ken-Caryl Ranch Facebook Page and sign up for the e-News for frequent pool construction photos and updates. You can access both means of communication at www.ken-carylranh.org.

Master Association

- On Aug. 20, the Ken-Caryl Ranch Master Association held a regular meeting and discussed the following items:
- Resident John Fosholt spoke to the Board about the Deer Creek Canyon Fire and fireworks activity in the community. He reported about vandalized fireworks signs on his property.
  - Jim Fodor spoke about fireworks activity in Heirloom Park. He suggested discussing fireworks in May or June next year at a Board meeting.
  - Valley Parkway Crossing Project: Open Space Manager Sean Warren reported about engineering design needs and increased costs of the Valley Parkway Crossing Project. The Board suggested getting a quote for concrete work to get an idea of the cost.
  - Trail Club Agreement Update: Staff presented proposed changes to the Memorandum of Understanding between the Trail Club and the Master Association. The next step is review by the Trail Club.
  - Mountain Cedar Social Trail: The trail will remain a social trail and improvements will not be made.
  - 2020 Budget Discussion: Staff distributed a combined list of Master Association and Metropolitan District needs for 2020. Budget discussions will continue in September.
  - A motion passed authorizing the Board President to enter into a new access agreement with the West Ranch as amended. Language will be added about mandatory bracelet use. The Board suggested changing the language so only volunteers, not staff, are committed to helping with trail design and construction. Several edits were recommended and will be made in the agreement.
  - A motion passed adopting the amended Trails Implementation Process.
  - Scotty Martin asked about the purpose and goal of the Volunteer Trail Coordinator Program. Staff explained that volunteers are in place of a paid staff member, thereby saving

- the community money. Jim Fodor expressed his concerns about the Volunteer Trail Coordinator program and the reporting relationship between volunteers, staff, and the Board. Matt O'Brien also expressed concerns about the reporting relationship.
- A motion passed authorizing staff to enter into an extended contract for auditing services with James Moore and Associates.
  - A motion passed adopting the updated Ken-Caryl Ranch Master Association Rules, Regulations, and Procedures.
  - Scotty Martin requested to reschedule the October Board Meeting due to a personal conflict. The Board will reschedule the October Board Meeting to Oct. 22.
  - Chris Pacetti reported about Jonathan Sawyer's construction activities at his home north of Ken-Caryl Ranch. He also discussed construction activity and open space access for the Westerly Apartments.

Metropolitan District

- On Aug. 27, the Ken-Caryl Ranch Metropolitan District held a regular meeting and discussed the following items:
- The Board discussed the District Manager finalist interviews and passed a motion recommending a specific candidate to receive a conditional offer of employment. The Board went into Executive Session to discuss the details of the candidate's offer.
  - Board members and staff discussed the efforts of the Financial Stability Workgroup. The group consists of two members of the Metropolitan District Board, two members of the Master Association Board, and representatives from staff. The goal of the group is: Financial stability to facilitate predictable delivery of goods and services to the Ken-Caryl Ranch community. The group identified an unfunded capital needs and projects list, and the Boards will jointly discuss the list at the next Joint Study Session.
  - The Ranch House Pool Project is underway. The Board talked about the - list of unfunded pool elements.

- The Board discussed an Employee and Board Member Recreational Benefits Program. The resolution to adopt the Program was removed from consideration.
  - The Board discussed South Hogback fencing options.
  - The Board discussed the Veteran's Monument. An audience member recommended lighting the monument during dark hours.
  - A motion passed directing staff to include $25,000 in the District's 2020 Budget for the purchase of unfunded Ranch House Pool elements selected by the Board that are not otherwise funded through the cooperative agreement for the Ranch House Pool replacement or by the Master Association.

Rules, Regulations, and Procedures Document Online

The Master Association Board and Architectural Committee have approved the new Rules, Regulations, and Procedures. You can view the new document at www.ken-carylranh.org under Administration, then Governing Documents.

This Rules, Regulations, and Procedures document contains the following:

- A summary of procedures for obtaining approval from the Architectural Committee.
- A summary of procedures for enforcement by the Covenant Control Committee.
- A list of specific types of improvements that homeowners might wish to make with detailed information as to each type of improvement.
- A list of rules governing the community.

A work group comprised of resident volunteers from the Covenant Control and Architectural Committee members, as well as staff, made up the group that reviewed and revised the document. Residents Peggy Coen, Matt O'Brien, Bob Siegel, and Matt Thomson offered their valuable time and expertise as professionals and residents for several weekly meetings committed to a detailed review of the original document. Opportunities for continuity, clarification, and updates to out-of-date rules and policies were identified and addressed. The extent of the work involved a complete line-by-line revision of the document; therefore, an entirely new document was created. Huge thanks go out to everyone involved! If you have any questions, please contact Jenny Bernal at jennyb@kcranch.org.

Off-Leash Dog Incident in Open Space

By Open Space Ranger Matt Oven

The Rangers received a report of a troubling incident regarding an off-leash dog, a Golden Retriever, attacking another dog. The incident occurred on the Cathy Johnson Trail on Aug. 12 at approximately 8 p.m. The unleashed dog was running beside its owner who was on a mountain bike. As the dog ran by, it bit an on-leash dog, creating a puncture wound. The owner did not stop, and continued biking and calling for the dog. The male was approximately 45-50 years old, white, possibly 5'9" and 200 pounds. He was wearing a green shirt and dark helmet or cap.

This unfortunate incident is not reflective of the normal use on the trails but does illustrate a problem of trail users who think it is ok to let their dogs off leash when recreating on the trails. This activity is a violation of a Jefferson County Ordinance and Ken-Caryl Ranch Open Space and Parks Rule. Rangers can issue a contact notice if they witness the off-leash violation.

"#4, Domestic animals must be under the owner's or handler's physical control at all times and be on a leash no longer than ten feet. Owner or handler will be responsible for any damages caused by their animal and must pick up and take out pet excrement after their household pets."

If this incident occurs in the future, a person may call the Ken-Caryl Ranch Park Rangers or Jefferson County Animal Control to report the violation. Regarding the bite incident, calling Jefferson County Animal Control at 303-271-5070 is the best course of action as the incident has escalated from just a dog off leash violation. Calling as close to the time of the incident is best and collecting information on the owner, dog breed, color of clothing, bike color, etc. would assist the Rangers or Animal Control Officers.

Remember to be respectful of other trail users and follow the rules in the open space!

Trails Report for July 12 - Aug. 15

Contractor General Maintenance Projects:

- All contractor-based maintenance has been completed for the season.
- No work done by contractors during this report period.

Volunteer Maintenance Projects
Vegetation Maintenance
Volunteers have performed vegetation maintenance on the following trails:

- South Shaffer
- North Shaffer
- Golden Banner
- Lost Canyon
- Powerline
- Golden Spike
- Kiln
- Lyons
- Lyons Ridge

This work consists of cutting back vegetation within the trail corridor to keep the tread readily visible to users. Also, it helps so vegetation doesn't interfere with use and to keep sight lines good for safety.

Vegetation maintenance work will continue as needed through the rest of August and into September, as needed.

Tread Maintenance

- Volunteers did no tread maintenance during this report period.
- There are a few small tread projects on Valley trails which maybe addressed in the next report period, to the extent there is volunteer interest.

If there are questions or comments, please contact trails@kcranch.org.

Protect your pet, wildlife and fellow visitors. Obey the leash law.

understand the principles for effective trapping and don't assume that a pest control service will use these techniques unless you require it when you hire them.

Poison baits or rodenticides, which are pesticides that kill rodents, are not recommended because of the risk to children, pets, non-target animals (such as hawks or other birds of prey, coyotes, or bobcats) and environmental concerns. Rodenticides can also harm pets or non-target animals by "secondary poisoning," where the pet or animal preying on a poisoned rat is also poisoned. An example is when a cat, dog, or bird of prey eats a rodent that is dying or has been killed by rodenticides.

Newly Renovated Chatfield Football Field Named After First Football Coach

On Aug. 17, the newly renovated football field at Chatfield Senior High was named Beaty Field in honor of Bob Beaty. Bob was the first football coach in the history of Chatfield Senior High and established a positive, winning attitude in the football program and the school.

Bob and his wife, Mary Michele, came from Oklahoma to Jefferson County in 1972. His first job was at Dunstan Junior High coaching the 8th grade football team. From there he was an assistant coach at Columbine from 1973-1976. In 1976, the head coaching position became available at Evergreen High School. As the head coach at Evergreen, he turned around the football program, leading to a league championship.

In 1985, Bob was chosen to be on the core team that helped to plan the opening of Chatfield Senior High. He was hired as the head football coach, and under him, Chatfield won its first ever football game. He took the team to the playoffs several years, including the state quarterfinals in 1994. He was also the head golf coach at Chatfield from 1996-2002.

Working to develop his players into well-rounded student-athletes and positive young men, Bob promoted having fun and taught life lessons well beyond the game of football. He emphasized not only the development of skills, but integrity, leadership, and respect. He mentored not only his athletes, but the coaches who worked with him as well. As a result, at least four of his assistants went on to become head coaches. The Colorado Football Officials Association presented him an award for his positive attitude in games.

Family members that were in attendance at the dedication were:

Mary Michele Beaty, his wife, a former English teacher at Evergreen High School and Chatfield;

Son Shaun Beaty, played four years for his dad and quarterbacked the team his senior year;

Daughter Cindy Beaty Chicota, who was on the golf team at Chatfield;

Cindy's husband, Greg Chicota, also a Chatfield graduate;

Grandchildren Austin and Ashley Beaty

Other family members in attendance included the Don and Melanie Jones family, long-time residents of Ken-Caryl:

Don, a former Chatfield Guidance Counselor and assistant football coach under Bob;

Melanie, veteran Jefferson County educator and former teacher at Coronado Elementary;

Nephew Scott Jones, played four years for his uncle and quarterbacked the team his senior year;

Niece Kelly Jones Kaye, played volleyball for Chatfield. She and her husband, Eric, and son, Kodie, are residents of Ken-Caryl.

Well-known community member and the Principal of the Bradford Schools, Gene Lewis, is a long-time friend of the family. He played for Coach Beaty in 1978-1980 and was on the Evergreen Championship team.

Vital to the success of the dedication were Keith Mead, former Chatfield assistant coach and principal, and Mike Freeman, former assistant coach, quarterback for Chatfield, and Jefferson County Administrator. Helping to bring the naming of the field to fruition were The Charger Gridiron Club and Coach Bret McGatlin.

Credit Card Fees

For those paying for programs with a credit or debit card, you will now see an increase of 4.25% per transaction, which will help offset $90,000 the District pays in card processing fees each year. Payments made with cash or check will not be subject to the increased fee. The District has consulted its legal team and other professionals in the credit card industry to determine that as a governmental entity, it is exempt from the law that prohibits charging patrons for credit card fees.

Local Writing Workshop for Kids

Children who love writing have enjoyed taking Young Writer’s Workshop at Bradford K-8. After school, they head to the library with their writing journals in hand. Former elementary teacher, now writing coach, Lori Himmel, begins with improv exercises to get their minds ready to write. The children find this hilarious as they make up characters and stories during the fast-paced activity. They learn about story elements that include developing a story problem, building characters, creating exciting settings, and adding dialogue.

Lori encourages children to write what they love. She has seen stories about cupcakes and cars, unicorns and foxes, historical figures and rock stars, and even Cheetos!

This fall marks Young Writer’s Workshop’s one-year anniversary. Over 40 children have participated. At the end of each session, parents attend a showcase where children read their stories out loud. It’s a wonderful celebration of their work, dedication, and creativity.

One parent said, “My daughter’s favorite part was getting to show off what she did. She loved the party at the end of the session. She previously would have never stood up in front of a crowd, so I love that!”

Lori writes picture books and middle-grade novels. Her passion is to encourage children in their writing and to provide a space for it in their lives.

The cost of the 8-week workshop is $130. The group meets from 3:50-5 p.m. twice a month. For specific dates and to sign up for the workshop, please visit youngwritersworkshop.co.

The fall session begins Sept. 16 for grades 2-4 (South Campus) and Sept. 17 for grades 5-6 (North Campus).

Constitution Week

Sept. 17-23 is Constitution Week. The Red Rocks Chapter and Columbine Chapter of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution ask you to join us in celebrating Constitution Week! This is a time where we can all come together and commemorate the signing of the Constitution of the United States. A time to remember our roots and beginnings.

Most of the delegates to the Constitutional Convention were natives of the 13 colonies.

Most simply wanted to find a way to live in peace and work together to create the foundation for our way of life.

We hope individuals, parents, educators, and our local politicians will encourage the study of historical events that lead to the framing of the Constitution in 1787.

Activities you can do to participate in Constitution Week:

- Create a skit depicting the signing of the constitution.
- Make flash cards of the 13 colonies and its representatives and have a contest for those who can remember the colonies and representatives.
- Read a history story about the constitution to children in schools or daycares or senior citizens.
- Donate a book and encourage literacy.
- Practice the preamble to the constitution.
- Make tricorn hats and have a parade.
- Ring the church bell or bell in the classroom to declare Constitution Week has begun.

Most importantly remember that despite obstacles, disagreements, and times that are hard we are Americans and we can come together to remember our ancestors created an incredible document that guides us today.

Wildfire Safety in Ken-Caryl

By Daniel Hatlestad, Ken-Caryl Firewise Committee
Editor's Note: On Aug. 15, a wildfire started in Deer Creek Canyon, just south of Ken-Caryl Valley. The proximity of the fire should serve as a reminder to Ken-Caryl residents on the importance of wildfire emergency preparation.

Wildfire safety, like evacuating efficiently and listening to those in charge of rescue efforts, will help ensure your family survives a wildfire. Hundreds of thousands of acres of land are damaged by wildfires each year, leaving behind a trail of destruction. However, by utilizing proper wildfire safety procedures, you can reduce the risks to your family's health and safety.

Wildfires are unpredictable; fire in the Wildland Urban Interface (WUI) can jump over barriers that would seemingly stop them, such as highways. All of Ken-Caryl falls within the WUI and everyone must be prepared for wildfire year-round. The following five steps are critical in planning for wildfire.

#1 Listen to Emergency Notices

Wildfire safety and preparation means understanding what each step of an emergency notification means and heeding the information. Don't wait for an official evacuation notice – if you are concerned about fire or smoke in your area, evacuate early. The National Weather Service and local authorities such as the Jefferson County Sheriff's Office issue bulletins regarding fire weather conditions:

Fire Weather Watch — Issued when the potential for severe fire weather exists in the near future. A watch is used when there is an increasing risk of wildfire. The fire danger rating is usually in the high to extreme category. A Fire Weather Watch normally will be issued 12 to 24 hours in advance of the expected onset of severe fire weather conditions.

Red Flag Warning — Issued to indicate the imminent danger of severe fire weather and a relatively high probability of occurring. The fire danger is usually in the high to extreme category. A Red Flag Warning will normally be issued for severe fire weather events less than 12 hours away from occurring.

Evacuation Order — Evacuations are issued when there is an extensive threat to life and property and should be taken seriously and followed.

#2 Wildfire Safety Requires Planning Ahead

Colorado, the Front Range, and the foothills of Jefferson County are susceptible to wildfires. The incidence, frequency, and intensity of wildfires is increasing, and the fire season now extends from Jan. 1 through Dec. 31 of each year. Residents of Ken-Caryl should plan and prepare for the potential of wildfire impacting our community:

- Mapping multiple evacuation routes, in case your preferred route is closed
- Gathering important documents that can be easily grabbed before evacuating
- Putting a change of clothes, first-aid kit, non-perishable food and water in your car

- Coordinating future evacuation plans with family members
- If you have pets, you should plan accordingly to prevent tough decisions in the heat of the moment. Service animals will be accepted at shelters, but if you need to evacuate with a pet, find lodging that can accommodate both your two-legged and four-legged family members.

#3 Protect Your Home From Wildfire

With strong, severe wildfires, even the most well-developed wildfire safety preparation may not be enough to prevent damage to your home, but certain measures could help stop smaller fires from creeping upon your property. The following wildfire safety tips could prevent extreme damage to your home:

- Remove and clear anything that could be considered additional fuel, such as dry leaves, from all areas surrounding the home, including gutters
- Remove flammable lawn furniture and put it inside, in the middle of your home, away from the doors and windows
- Create fuel breaks, such as cement or gravel walkways
- Purchase and install extra-long garden hoses that are able to reach every part of your home, from front to back

#4 Confirm Wildfire Danger Has Passed Before Returning Home

In the aftermath of a disaster, wildfire safety is still important. There are many hazards left behind by the flames that could be a threat to human life. Watch out for:

- Smoke and airborne ash which can irritate your airways and lungs
- Nails, broken glass, and metal which can easily pierce most shoes and your bare hands
- Ash pits, which are large holes of hot ash from burned up trees
- Hot spots, which are areas of the ground that are still hot from extinguished flames and have the potential to flare up
- Falling debris from damaged homes and buildings

#5 Stay Vigilant While Surveying Wildfire Damage

Visit the attic to check for damage and any signs that part of your home is still on fire, such as smoldering areas or smoke. If you find evidence of fire, evacuate the house immediately and call 911. If the house is safe, before touching anything, document your entire home and property and record area of damage for insurance claims.

Escape Planning

Plan Ahead! If a fire breaks out in your home, you may have only a few minutes to get out safely once the smoke alarm sounds. Everyone needs to know what to do and where to go if there is a fire.

SAFETY TIPS

- » MAKE a home escape plan. Draw a map of your home showing all doors and windows. Discuss the plan with everyone in your home.
- » KNOW at least two ways out of every room, if possible. Make sure all doors and windows leading outside open easily.
- » HAVE an outside meeting place (like a tree, light pole or mailbox) a safe distance from the home where everyone should meet.
- » PRACTICE your home fire drill at night and during the day with everyone in your home, twice a year.
- » PRACTICE using different ways out.
- » TEACH children how to escape on their own in case you can't help them.
- » CLOSE doors behind you as you leave.

IF THE ALARM SOUNDS...

- » If the smoke alarm sounds, GET OUT AND STAY OUT. Never go back inside for people or pets.
- » If you have to escape through smoke, GET LOW AND GO under the smoke to your way out.
- » CALL the fire department from outside your home.

FACTS

- ! A closed door may slow the spread of smoke, heat, and fire. Install smoke alarms inside every sleeping room and outside each separate sleeping area. Install alarms on every level of the home. Smoke alarms should be interconnected. When one smoke alarm sounds, they all sound.
- ! According to an NFPA survey, only one of every three American households have actually developed and practiced a home fire escape plan.
- ! While 71% of Americans have an escape plan in case of a fire, only 47% of those have practiced it.
- ! One-third of American households who made an estimate thought they would have at least 6 minutes before a fire in their home would become life-threatening. The time available is often less. And only 8% said their first thought on hearing a smoke alarm would be to get out!
