Don't Forget To Vote In The MA Election

There are three Board seats on the ballot for the current Ken-Caryl Ranch Master Association Board election. There are five candidates for the KCRMA Board: Chris Figge, Thomas Hadley, Colin Larson, Seth Murphy and Erlinda Stafford. You can see full candidate profiles and photos online at ken-carylranh.org.

The election is held online, and postcards detailing the election process were mailed to all households on Feb. 14. Go to the voting site, which is linked from ken-carylranh.org, to cast your vote for your three candidate choices. The postcard has your household's code to access the voting site. If you lose your postcard or would prefer to vote with a paper ballot, you can make an appointment to come to the Ranch House. You will need to bring your photo ID. You can also stop by the Ranch House on Monday, March 3 from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. to vote that day. The election closes March 4 at 5 p.m. and winners will be posted online soon after.

The two candidates who receive the most votes will be elected for three-year terms with the third candidate to serve for two years. This is being done to reestablish the staggered terms called for in our governing documents following a reduction in the size of the Board from seven members to five.

Last Chance To Win A Free Month Of Dues

Residents need to sign and return their proxy slips, which were mailed in December, because 2,341 signed proxies are needed to establish quorum at the March 4 Master Association Annual Meeting. You can pick up a proxy form at the Ranch House or download one at www.ken-carylranh.org. Everyone who turns in their proxy form by 5 p.m. on March 4 will be entered into a drawing for one free month of dues.

Proposed Improvements To The Community Center And Parks, Playgrounds And Landscaping

by KCRMA Executive Director Chris Pacetti and KCRMD District Manager Darrell Windes

This article is the second in a series of articles looking at what type of improvements the Ken-Caryl Ranch community might see to facilities and amenities if the proposed May 6 bond election moves forward. At its Board meeting on Feb. 25, the Board of Directors of the Ken-Caryl Ranch Metropolitan District Board (KCRMD) is scheduled to vote on whether to authorize placement of a question on its May 6 election ballot asking voters for approval to issue $7.9 million for 10 years in general obligation bonds for investment in the community.

In the Feb. 12 issue of Life at Ken-Caryl, we discussed the proposed improvements to the Ranch House and Dakota Lodge. In this issue, we will explore the proposed improvements for the Community Center and for the parks, playgrounds and landscaping of the community.

The Community Center was built in 1980 and is now almost 35 years old. Recreation amenities and designs have changed quite a bit in the past 35 years. In 1991, the Community Center was purchased by Jefferson County and leased back to the KCRMD to operate for the community. Since that time, the KCRMD has made significant investments to the amenity including construction of a permanent tennis building, interior remodeling

Community Meetings Held For Bond Election

Two community meetings were held in February to discuss the possible May Bond Election proposed by the Ken-Caryl Ranch Metropolitan District Board. More than 50 residents attended the meetings. MD Board President Bob Generoli gave a detailed presentation on the bond process, financial impact to the community and proposed improvements that would be made to the community if the bond passes. Several residents had questions and comments regarding the Bond Election. If you were unable to make one of the meetings, we encourage you to review the presentation, which is available at ken-carylranh.org. If you have any questions, please contact Darrell Windes at 303-979-1876, ext. 114, or darrellw@kcranch.org.

Meeting Held To Discuss Proposed Dog Park

On Wednesday, Feb. 12, a public informational meeting was held at the Ken-Caryl Ranch House to discuss a proposed dog park that would be located near the parking lot for the sledding hill at the intersection of Kipling and Ken Caryl Ave. The proposed dog park would be a joint venture between the Ken-Caryl Ranch Metropolitan District and the Foothills Park & Recreation District with the proposed park to be funded through private donations and grants.

The meeting included a presentation on the specifics of the requirements for developing dog parks in Jefferson County. A copy of the presentation made at the meeting is available on the Ken-Caryl Ranch website at www.ken-carylranh.org. A copy of the proposed design options for the site is also available for review at the Ranch House.

Based on the favorable response from those in attendance, a second meeting will take place soon with more detailed information and additional ideas on how the project might move forward. Watch for the date and time of the next meeting in an upcoming issue of Life at Ken-Caryl and in the e-News.

Manager's Column

by KCRMD District Manager Darrell Windes

The Board of Directors of the Ken-Caryl Ranch Metropolitan District at its Feb. 25 Board meeting is scheduled to consider whether to place a question on the May 6 ballot to ask the voters of the District to authorize the issuance of up to $7.9 million in general obligation debt for improvements to the facilities and landscaping on Ken-Caryl Ranch. The bond authorization would include a 10-year repayment plan.

Earlier this month, the District held two community meetings on a proposed bond election in an effort to assess the interest of residents in such a plan. The majority of those in attendance at both of the meetings was in favor of the proposed initiative and encouraged the Board of Directors to move forward with placing a bond question on the May 6 ballot. A presentation was made at each of the meetings by District Board President Bob Generoli to outline the reasons and background why a bond issue is being considered by the Board. A copy of this presentation can be reviewed on the Ken-Caryl Ranch website at www.ken-carylranh.org.

The May 6 District election includes openings for three directors on the Board of Directors. Anyone interested in serving on the Board of Directors must complete a Self-Nomination and Acceptance Form by no later than Feb. 28. Copies of this form are available on the Ken-Caryl Ranch website at ken-carylranh.org and at the Ranch House.

The District is also in the process of discussing the possibility of a dog park near the parking lot of the Sledding Hill at the intersection of Kipling and Ken Caryl Ave. The proposed dog park would be a joint venture with the Foothills Park & Recreation District with both entities partnering in the development and ongoing administration of such an amenity. The model for the proposed park would call for all funding for development costs to be generated by grants and private donations.

A public informational meeting was held on Feb. 12 to gauge interest from residents of both Ken-Caryl Ranch and Foothills on the concept. A presentation was made to those in attendance to explain the steps that need to be considered in developing and operating a dog park. A copy of this presentation is also available on the Ken-Caryl Ranch website. Responses gathered at the meeting were overwhelmingly in favor of scheduling a follow-up meeting to discuss the proposed project in greater detail. Watch future issues of Life at Ken-Caryl and the e-News for details on a second meeting.

When It's Over, It's Over

by KCRMA Community Standards Administrator Rita Saunders

Holiday decorations, contractor advertising signage, portable basketball goals and trash cans... what do they have in common? After they have served their purposes, they need to be removed or properly stored!

These are typical examples of complaints received or issues encountered this time of year. While colorful displays of Broncos team spirit livened many neighborhoods during the wintry days at the start of the New Year, those and any lingering lights and decorations left over from December need to be stowed away. Our documents allow until Feb. 1 for removal of these festive adornments. The violent storms last fall resulted in a flurry of construction activity involving new roofs, siding replacement and exterior painting. The signage guidelines allow contractors to post signs on private property only while the work is ongoing.

We are fortunate to enjoy many glorious winter days for outdoor activities, but please store portable basketball goals in their upright and locked position at least halfway up your driveway after the game has ended. Finally, our Master Association dues provide trash and recycling services, so each neighborhood fortunately has only one day per week where receptacles are visible curbside. While the rule allows containers to be set out after 7 p.m. the evening before the scheduled pick-up and requires them to be taken in by 7 p.m. the day of the collection, it's preferable to set trash out the morning of the pick-up to avoid tempting nighttime critters with a smorgasbord of scraps.

Please keep in mind that rules are dynamic in nature... new issues surface, obsolete rules are deleted and others simply are amended or updated. Ken-Caryl Ranch documents are available at the Ranch House and on our website at www.ken-carylranh.org. Also, please don't hesitate to call me at 303-979-1876, ext. 113, or email ritas@kcranch.org should you have any covenant questions or concerns. I also welcome topic suggestions for future columns; if you have an idea, it is likely others share your interest!

Ranger Field Notes

Wildlife Call Totals For 2013

by KCRMA Open Space Ranger Peter Marozas

The Ken-Caryl Ranch Park Ranger staff received a total of 182 wildlife calls in 2013. All calls are different in nature, and a call can last anywhere from several minutes to 45 minutes depending on the situation. The calls can involve a sick or injured animal, concerns about persons feeding wildlife, general wildlife questions or directing a resident to contact a pest control company, wildlife rehabilitator, Animal Control or Colorado Parks and Wildlife for more information. Many of the calls fall under the category of nuisance wildlife, or animals either living in or around homes, which usually involves coyotes, foxes, deer, rabbits, raccoons or snakes.

The highest number of wildlife calls for the year was 113 for deer (see graph). This number is up from last year's total of 86. Calls generally involved sick/injured or even dead deer. Park Rangers' job duties include monitoring the sick and injured deer through calls from concerned residents and making site visits in the field to determine the health of the animal. Rangers are certified through Colorado Parks and Wildlife's Hunter Education Program and may have to euthanize a deer in the field with a .22 rifle if the situation warrants.

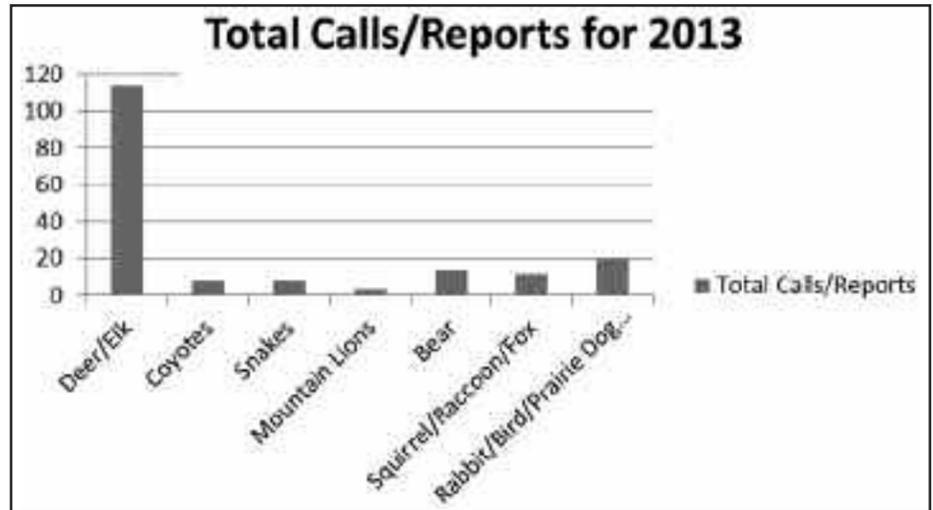

If a call is received about an injured deer, Rangers will investigate depending on the severity of the injury. If the animal is suffering too badly, cannot stand, fend for itself or feed, euthanizing the animal is the most humane way to treat the situation. Unfortunately, deer cannot be rehabilitated due to the possibility of transmitting Chronic Wasting Disease.

Since the time change in the fall and the fact that drivers are commuting in the dark, many deer are injured or killed by vehicles. For example, a couple of years ago, the Rangers received a call from a concerned resident about a deer stumbling around near the entrance to the North Ranch. The caller said the deer was falling and trying to get up but couldn't, and the caller thought the deer was sick. Rangers responded to the scene several minutes later and found the deer dead lying next to the North Ranch entrance sign.

Upon further investigation and with the help of another resident who stopped to ask questions, pieces of broken vehicle lights were found next to scrape marks in the dirt. The mule deer buck had missing hair and scrapes on its body. The North Ranch sign even had deer hair on the letters indicating the collision sent the deer into the sign. As you can deduce from this example, a vehicle hit the deer and drove away without reporting the accident or caring about the welfare of an injured deer and left it there to suffer. This is just one example of many different situations that arise during wildlife and vehicle collisions.

I would like to remind drivers to please slow down and drive the posted speed limit on the streets of Ken-Caryl Ranch. By driving the speed limit your reaction time will increase tremendously, and it will help you avoid hitting an animal when it crosses the road in front of your vehicle.

Volunteer Patrollers Needed

Ken-Caryl Ranch Park Rangers are now accepting applications for Private Open Space Volunteer Patrollers. The program description and application can be downloaded at www.ken-carylranh.org by clicking on the Open Space tab, then on "Volunteer & Trail Club." If you have any questions, call Park Ranger Matt Oven at 303-904-0249 or email at matto@kcranch.org.

and renovation, and installation of a water slide. However, even with these improvements, most of the facility and campus still has its original construction and design.

Interior Of The Community Center

Anticipated improvements to the Community Center could include renovation of the locker rooms, addition of programming space and redesign and upgrading of the fitness areas, redesign of the lobby and reception areas, and upgrading of the wall coverings and flooring throughout the facility.

Community Center Campus

In 2013, the KCRMD completed a Community Center campus master plan to develop a long-range plan for improving the outdoor amenities on the nearly 12-acre site. Included in the campus master plan are expansion of the outdoor pool decking, addition of shade structures in the pool area and replacement of the wading pool with a splash pad. Also included in the master plan is replacement of the outdoor tennis courts with post-tensioned concrete courts, new outdoor court lighting, installation of restrooms at the tennis building and relocation of some of the parking to improve traffic patterns as well as the safety of patrons. The master plan also anticipates the addition of green spaces with installation of an additional playground on the site. All of the above mentioned improvements identified in the Community Center campus master plan are estimated to be included in the $7.9 million bond issue amount.

The final designs and development would include a public input process following the bond issuance approval by the community. All of the above improvements both to the campus and the building would be designed in compliance with the 2010 changes to the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Parks, Playgrounds And Landscaping

Plans include the replacement of the entrance signs to the community to provide a new, fresh and consistent look and feel so visitors and residents alike know when they have entered Ken-Caryl Ranch. Also anticipated are the replacement of seven playgrounds in the community with the latest playground equipment designs and play surfaces that again are in compliance with the 2010 Americans with Disabilities Act. The bond issue improvements also include installation of enhanced, water-conserving landscaping, including a systematic, aggressive plan for tree replacement.

The Bradford Pool will receive new pool furniture and shade structures. The landscaping enhancement plans included in the proposed bond issue call for irrigation systems throughout Ken-Caryl Ranch. To this point, the KCRMD and the Ken-Caryl Ranch Master Association have partnered on four separate completed irrigation replacements that total nearly $1 million. A successful bond election would allow for a greatly accelerated plan for a multi-year replacement of the oldest remaining irrigation systems on Ken-Caryl Ranch. The new systems include computerized central controllers to provide more effective irrigation coverage as well as water conservation resulting from automatic shutoff of water line breaks.

In 2015, the housing development of Ken-Caryl Ranch will be celebrating its 40th birthday. Most things need a little sprucing up when they reach 40 years of age. All of the improvements included in the proposed May 6 bond issue election are for the replacement and enhancement of the existing assets of the community.

In Memoriam

Ken-Caryl Ranch Mourns Loss Of Long-Term Employee

Don Campbell, a 20-year employee of the Ken-Caryl Ranch Metropolitan District, passed away on Feb. 16 at the age of 80. Don had been fighting a battle with cancer since 2011. Through his 20 years with the District, Don had worked behind the scenes at both the Community Center and the Ranch House performing facility maintenance duties that were essential to the daily operations of Ken-Caryl Ranch. Don was one of those people who went above and beyond his daily assigned duties to take care of whatever needed to be done, whether it was part of his job or not. To everyone who knew Don, he demonstrated a work ethic that is not found very often in today's times. Don became a friend to all he worked with and will be missed every day.

Celebrating 100 Years

Colorow And The Utes

Submitted by Rosemary Lewis,
Ken-Caryl Ranch Historical Society

Just north of the Bradford-Perley House and outside of Ken-Caryl is a red rock outcropping known as "Colorow's Cave." Just who was Colorow, and what did he have to do with Ken-Caryl? Colorow was a Ute leader who was born as a Comanche around 1810 and captured as a child by the Muache Ute band. Colorow detested the encroachment of the whites during the 1860s and led a faction of Utes that was credited with harassing, and occasionally killing, settlers and miners across Colorado Territory.

Despite being assigned to live at the temporary Denver Ute Agency at the confluence of the South Platte and Cherry Creek in 1868, he continued to roam the ancestral Ute domain, hunting in Middle Park and bathing in the hot springs. One of Colorow's preferred camping grounds near Denver was the "cave." This is not a fully covered cave, but it is shaped more like a horse-shoe with the sides reaching up, but not quite touching, at the top.

He loved the fresh biscuits and syrup that the pioneer wives baked. Colorow and his followers obtained biscuits by knocking on the doors and windows of cabins and demanding that the women bake until they were satiated or until the flour ran out. Colorow so enjoyed biscuits that he grew to some 300 pounds. Stories of Colorow and his weakness for biscuits have been recorded from Denver to Colorado Springs, east to Elbert and west to what was then called Bradford (now Ken-Caryl).

In 1875, the temporary Denver Ute reservation was closed and Colorow's group was reassigned to the White River Agency in western Colorado under the direction of Nathan Meeker. On Sept. 29, 1879, the Utes attacked Meeker's agency, killing several and taking women and children hostage. That same day Colorow was several miles north at Milk Creek, fighting a relief column of soldiers.

The massacre resulted in the removal of the Ute people out of Colorado to the Uintah Reservation in Utah in 1881. Colorow, in character with his actions throughout his life, did not remain on the reservation but would travel to the hunting grounds of Colorado each year. In the summer of 1887 while on their return to Utah, Colorow's band was in a minor skirmish near Rangely, later called "Colorow's War," in which Colorow was injured. He died the following year.

Editor's Note: What we know today as Ken-Caryl Ranch began on Oct. 17, 1914, with the purchase of 2,660 acres of land southwest of Denver by John Charles Shaffer. To recognize and commemorate 100 years of Ken-Caryl Ranch, Rosemary Lewis of the Historical Society will be writing articles in each issue of the paper noting historical events in and around Ken-Caryl Ranch. The series of articles will lead up to a celebration hosted by the Ken-Caryl Ranch Historical Society on Aug. 9 at the Manor House. The whole community is invited. If you have information to add to this article, please contact Jeff Allison at 303-972-0096.

Veterans Voice

Bricks Available For Veterans Monument

It's not too late to recognize a special veteran in your life with an Honor Brick for the Ken-Caryl Ranch Veterans Monument. Honor Bricks can be purchased for a $300 tax-deductible donation and will become a permanent part of the Veterans Monument.

The Ridge Indoor Pool Use

In November 2013, the Ken-Caryl Ranch Metropolitan District entered into an agreement with the Foothills Park & Recreation District to provide Ken-Caryl Ranch residents access to the pools at the Ridge at Foothills resident rates. We are happy to see the community responding positively to this partnership. Some users have had some questions about the level of access Ken-Caryl Ranch residents are allowed under the agreement, and we wanted to provide an update and some clarification.

The partnership went into effect on Jan. 1. During that first month, Foothills saw 808 in-

You can see a sample brick and the conceptual model of the Veterans Monument on display at the Ranch House. The committee selected a specific style, font and design for the Honor Bricks. The committee members also approved a limited number of "clip art" designs based on feedback from KCR residents who have viewed the bricks.

Order forms are located at both the Ranch House and the Community Center, as well as at ken-carylranh.org or on the Veterans Monument website at www.kcrveteransmonu-mental.wordpress.com. Honor Bricks can be purchased with cash, check or credit card. A process has been established so Honor Bricks can be purchased with a credit card at $100 per month for three months. All donations can be sent to the following address: Ken-Caryl Ranch Veterans Monument Attn: Darrell Windes 7676 South Continental Divide Road Littleton, Co, 80127 Checks can be made payable to KCRMD, and please put "Veterans Monument" in the memo line. Be sure to enclose the Honor Brick order form if that's what your donation is for. You can also pay with credit cards online at www.ken-carylranh.org through the "Register for Classes" link, or you can stop by the Ranch House or Community Center and pay with a check, cash or credit card. Please note that the Veterans Monument Fund has to pay a fee for each credit card

The Ridge Recreation Center has a leisure activity pool with a current channel, floor geysers, children's play structure with tot slide, body flume slide with splash-down area and both a zero-depth and stair entry.

dividual users from 370 households either use the facility or sign up for an ID card. The agreement was created after the KC2020 Resident Survey results showed a strong interest in Ken-Caryl Ranch having an indoor pool. To investigate just how much our community would use an indoor pool, we partnered with Foothills to provide access to the indoor pools at the Ridge at resident rates. This new partnership provides Ken-Caryl Ranch residents Foothills resident rates for the Ridge Recreation Center facility only. It does not include the Edge Ice Arena, Peak Community & Wellness Center or any other Foothills facility. Additionally, the agreement only provides resident rates for drop-ins and punch passes, not monthly or yearly passes. It does not include access to classes or programs. Ken-Caryl Ranch residents are able to use all of these other Foothills amenities but at non-resident rates. This partnership was designed as a trial run and is proving promising. We are hopeful our partnership with Foothills will continue to grow.

Shown here is a sample of an Honor Brick that residents can purchase for the Veterans Monument for a $300 tax-deductible donation. Sample bricks are on display at the Ranch House and Community Center.

transaction, so your donation can stretch even more if you pay with a check or cash.

How Did Our Garden Grow?

The History Of The Ken-Caryl Community Garden

Submitted by Harriet Camp, North Ranch

Recently, I interviewed Rachael Stickland, who was instrumental in developing the Community Garden here in Ken-Caryl. It truly was a "grass-roots" effort that involved many people, required patience and perseverance and took several years. Luckily for our community, the group kept moving forward toward the goal of creating a beautiful garden.

This June, we will celebrate the fourth anniversary of the Community Garden. It is an asset not only to those who rent plots but to the entire community who are always welcome to come by and visit.

Harriet Camp (HC): When did you have that "ah ha" moment to build a Community Garden?

Rachael Stickland (RS): Actually, it was a group decision. It was fall 2007, and I had just joined the Ken-Caryl Parent Network (KCPN). Under the KCPN umbrella was a fledgling special interest group called the "Green Group" created to reduce our collective impact on the environment. Together we brainstormed community initiatives including leaf recycling events and the community garden.

In early spring 2008, we felt that we had enough momentum to approach the Ken-Caryl Ranch Master Association (KCRMA) with the idea of creating a Community Garden. Chris Pacetti, KCRMA's Executive Director, was instrumental to help our group get organized and moving in the right direction. Since I have a degree in Landscape Architecture, it was a natural fit that I took the lead. Our initial group of volunteers was amazing. The garden would never have launched without the tireless commitment of Christine Howery, Erinn Hall, Irene Guertin, Lisa Delfina, Janie Emanuel, Annissa McDonald, Deb Evans and Krista Van Lewen.

HC: What were your first steps?

RS: Our first steps were to visit successful area community gardens and speak with the administrators of the program at Highlands Ranch to understand the construction, maintenance and administrative costs associated with community gardens. Next, we approached the elected boards of KCRMA and the Ken-Caryl Ranch Metropolitan District (KCRMD) in June 2008. This was the beginning of a long process to locate an appropriate site, develop functional and aesthetic design alternatives, identify possible funding sources and gain approval from the many administrative bodies on Ken-Caryl Ranch.

In early 2009 we had a community Town Hall meeting where more than 200 residents demonstrated their support for the garden. It took a bit more work to get support from the KCRMA and KCRMD Boards. They were rightfully and legitimately concerned with the initial and long-term financial and administrative impact of the garden. In the end, every road block and hurdle made our concept and final result that much stronger.

HC: How long from idea to grand opening of the garden?

There are still some small plots available for rent for the 2014 growing season. Go to ken-carylranh.org to register.

Rachael Stickland, left, was the driving force behind the establishment of the Ken-Caryl Ranch Community Garden located next to the Community Center in the Valley.

RS: Our group generated the idea in the fall of 2007; members of our group joined the Ken-Caryl Ranch Foundation in early 2009 to give us the flexibility to fund raise. We received KCRMD Board approval in February 2009. In summer of 2010 we were awarded a $45,000 Great Outdoors Colorado Grant. The garden was constructed in spring of 2011 for a total cost of $63,000. All construction funds were donated. We opened our doors on June 11, 2011.

HC: What was the biggest challenge?

RS: The biggest challenge was navigating the project approval process. I won't lie ... raising $63,000 during the recession was not easy either.

HC: Who owns the garden?

RS: This is very complicated. The land at the Community Center is owned by Jefferson County Open Space. The KCRMD holds a long-term lease with Jeffco and is responsible for maintaining the building and property. The KCRMD and the Ken-Caryl Ranch Foundation hold a Use Agreement that specifies our financial and operational commitment to the garden. While the KCRMD supports the garden with a few in-kind services (i.e. plot registration and trash pick-up), the garden is fully funded by plot fees and run exclusively by volunteers

HC: How do you set the plot fee?

RS: Our prices are definitely higher than other area gardens, but our garden is also very unique. We are self-funded. We are not subsidized by the KCRMD or any other governing body. Our plot fees must pay for water usage and any ongoing maintenance costs.

Additionally, as part of the Foundation's agreement with the KCRMD, annual installments of $2,080 must be paid toward a restoration reserve. The restoration reserve was created to restore the property to original conditions if the community garden should cease to exist. The reserve will be fully funded at $13,000 in spring 2016. Starting in 2017 we anticipate our plot fees will reduce substantially.

HC: Has the garden "grown" as you had envisioned?

RS: I am lucky to have a backyard garden and my kids have the benefit of working in the soil watching seeds turn magically into fruits and vegetable, and then bringing their treasures into the kitchen to cook together as a family. Every family — everyone —

Grant Farms CSA Adds A Pick-up Site In The Valley

Submitted by Jessica Mullins, Traditions

Looking for a way to incorporate fresh, local and seasonal food into your kitchen and onto your plate? Grant Farms Community Supported Agriculture (CSA) is back with a NEW pick-up site in Ken-Caryl Valley! They are now offering not only three sizes of vegetable shares, but also fruit shares, pastured organic egg shares, mushroom and cheese shares, microgreen shares, canned goods shares, and All-In Farm Kitchen Shares.

Joining a CSA is a wonderful way to not only vote for your local economy with your food dollar (by sending it directly to the farmer rather than through middle-man distributors), but it's also a great way to lock in a portion of your food costs for the season. In Grant Farm's case, the length of the share season is six months.

Collaborating with other local producers adds diversity to their share offerings, as well as giving others another local market outlet for their goods. Grant Farms collaborates with Hazel Dell Mushrooms, MouCo Cheese, Haystack Mountain Goat Cheese, Raspberry Hill Farm and orchards on the Western Slope of Colorado to bring you mushroom, cheese, microgreen and fruit shares.

When members join Grant Farm by signing up for a share, they are also contributing to the History Of The Ken-Caryl Community Garden should have this opportunity. The simple act of growing your own food connects you to a place and community. I believe the Ken-Caryl Community Garden does this for our neighbors.

HC: What is your vision for the future of the garden?

RS: My vision is for it to be wildly successful in that it provides a place for members of our community to work in the soil together ... to get to know each other and understand that the world is much bigger than ourselves.

HC: What is your favorite garden plant to grow?

RS: Grape tomatoes. Right off the vine they are like candy.

Rachael has moved on in her volunteer life and is currently the new president of the Ken-Caryl Ranch Foundation. She is also signed up to help the KCRMD with two springtime playground construction projects at the Community Park and the Ranch House. These playgrounds will be constructed almost entirely by community volunteers. Please keep an eye out for more information in Life at Ken-Caryl.

A plaque dedicated to Rachael is posted on the shed and it says: "If you've never experienced the joy of accomplishing more than you can imagine — plant a garden." Thanks for imagining, Rachael Stickland!

Small plots at the garden are available for rent. Go to the Ken-Caryl Ranch website at ken-carylranh.org to register.

Seminars For Veterans

Wartime veterans may qualify for up to $2,085 monthly, and surviving spouses may receive up to $1,130 per month through the Veteran's Aid & Attendance Benefit. Stop in at Sterling House, 8271 S. Continental Divide Road, on the second Friday of each month at 3 p.m. An accredited representative of the Veteran's Administration will be on hand. Admission is complimentary, and open to the community. The next meeting is Friday, March 14 at 3 p.m.

ing up for a CSA share, they're committing to entering into the challenges of the growing season with their farmer, as well as the bounty and rewards. In turn, the farmers commit to providing their members with the most abundant and diverse shares as possible for the entire length of the growing season, weather permitting.

The up-front financial support they receive from the community helps them to buy seed, fix equipment, and plan and prepare for the upcoming season without relying on subsidies or big banks' loans as many industrial farms do. In this way, the CSA model is a more economically and socially sustainable model of a food system. It's also environmentally sustainable in that it keeps food local and reduces one's carbon footprint.

As farmers, not only are they passionate about growing nutritious and great tasting food on the land they love, they're also working to educate and directly connect folks with where their food comes from. If you are interested in checking it out or signing up, please see www.grantfarms.com, call 970-568-7654 or email howdy@grantfarms.com.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Humans Bedeviling Ken-Caryl Prairie Dogs

"The greatness of a nation can be judged by how its animals are treated." Animals cannot speak for themselves, but we can speak for them. Dr. Seuss created "The Lorax" to speak for the trees. Who will speak for the prairie dogs?

Prairie dog populations are experiencing serious decline. Since 1900 the population of prairie dogs has been reduced by 98 percent. Prairie dogs have been methodically exterminated by humans. Prairie dogs exist on only 2 percent of their historical home range. Development, loss of habitat, extermination and ignorance have all contributed to their decline.

The prairie dog is the most important species in the American prairie. Prairie dogs are considered a "keystone species." This means they are "a species whose existence adds to the diversity of life." If this keystone species is threatened or becomes extinct, it would mean the hardship or disappearance of other forms of life. Over 100 species have been documented living on or near prairie dog colonies. These colonies contribute to the ecosystem by providing burrows for other animals: owls, ferrets and snakes. In addition, prairie dogs eat insects and provide a food source for other animals: coyotes, badgers, ferrets and our many birds of prey. Finally, the burrowing activity of the prairie dogs aerates the soil and allows it to better support plant life, which helps prevent flooding. Without prairie dogs, many valuable aspects of our local ecology would change or vanish.

Marian Miaskiewicz misses the point in her quote. The purpose of open space is to protect it. When prairie dogs take over it has the opposite effect. Prairie dogs are NOT separate from open space; they are an important part of our open space and they deserve to be protected and not euthanized. I say the open space would no longer be a "pretty" place without the prairie dogs and the red-tailed hawks swooping down and hunting their natural food source.

Speak up for the protection of our prairie dogs that are an integral part of our open space and a legitimate resident of Ken-Caryl.

Kathy Webster

Dear Editor:

The annual meeting of the Master Association and election of officers is coming up in a few weeks. As longtime residents of Ken-Caryl Ranch, we encourage all to become informed and vote in the election. One of the candidates, Colin Larson, deserves your consideration. We have known Colin through his parents and through his volunteer work as he grew up here on the Ranch. Our community benefits when more young people like Colin take an interest in the future of Ken-Caryl Ranch. Please review his résumé at the Ken-Caryl website. We believe he is well-qualified and interested in improving our community.

Dan and Marcia Ferguson

Dear Editor:

I am writing to endorse Chris Figge in the upcoming MA election. I have worked with Chris for many years and find him to be focused on what is best for the community. He spends significant time at meetings with the MA Board, the MD Board and other committees. I appreciate his hard work and efforts on behalf of Ken-Caryl Ranch and would encourage the residents to re-elect him to the MA Board.

Dave Banning
Deerwood Vista

Dear Editor:

My name is Tom Hadley, and as you may have seen, I have decided to run for the KCR Master Association Board. I think I bring an open mind to the Board and one that is willing to listen to all sides of the issues.

One issue I think all residents should consider is the proposed Municipal Bond Offering being considered by the KCR Metro District. The proposal is to raise $8-10 million through a mill levy on KCR residents. My knee jerk reaction (as I imagine will be the same for many at KCR) was "the last thing we need is another tax," but after attending the meeting and hearing their plan, I'm all for it. I am a fiscal conservative by background. I am a firm believer that governments are the worst allocators of capital on the planet, and their solution to solving just about any problem is to throw money at it.

So, you may ask...why I would vote for this. Well, there are a number of reasons. 1) I don't view this as a tax. I view it as an investment in our community. The typical KCR resident would see his taxes go up by $10-20 a month. Assuming they do a 10-year municipal bond (the tax would disappear after 10 years) that would be $1,200-$2,500 per resident over 10 years. Assuming the improvements increased property values by just 1 percent, the return we would get is twice what we would pay in this tax. That is a 100 percent return on our capital. 2) The infrastructure at KCR is 35 years old. It wasn't designed to last forever. Our community competes everyday with all the communities around us for new home buyers. If we don't upgrade our facilities, our community will fall behind. 3) I think the way they chose to finance this transaction is brilliant. A 10-year Municipal Bond should have an interest rate around 3.5 percent. This allows us to start building the facilities immediately, but finance it over 10 years and do so while interest rates are at all-time low levels.
