Leave The Bears Alone!

Recently, a mama bear and her two cubs have been spotted throughout the Valley. The bears were in a tree in the Open Space near the Colony, and it was noticed that about a dozen people, including children, were at the bottom of a tree looking up at the bears. The bears were hissing and starting to grumble at the people below. DO NOT GO NEAR BEARS! Bears that get too comfortable around people can destroy property and become a threat to human safety. Habituated bears must often be destroyed. Do your part to bear-proof your home and property, and help keep bears alive and wild. For information on deterring bears and bear-proofing your home, see the Colorado Parks and Wildlife website at <http://wildlife.state.co.us>.

Chatfield Ave. Improvements To Begin Late June Lane Closures Expected; Alternate Routes Advised

Jefferson County is anticipated to start construction work the week of June 24 on the Chatfield Ave. roadway and drainage improvement project from Ken Caryl Ave. to South Garrison St. The contract has been awarded to American Civil Constructors in the approximate amount of $3.5 million.

The original eastern construction limit was South Everett Way, but as a cost-saving measure, the construction will now end at South Garrison St. The first phase of construction will be on Chatfield Ave. from approximately 200 feet west of Sangre De Cristo Road to South Iris Way. The contractor may be working in other isolated areas from Ken Caryl Ave. to South Garrison St. in conjunction with the first phase of construction.

Lane closures will occur during construction, but Chatfield Ave. will remain open to traffic. However, alternate routes are advised. Please drive carefully and pay close attention through the work zones.

The project includes adding a free-flowing eastbound right-turn lane and second eastbound through lane at the Chatfield and Kipling intersection. The existing drainage problems at the northwest corner of the Chatfield and Kipling intersection will also be addressed and fixed.

At the Chatfield/Cochetopa Pass/Shaffer Place intersection, the existing dips on the east and west legs will be modified to provide for a smoother ride. Changes will improve the safety of the existing pedestrian median crossing to the trail path between Ken Caryl Ave. and the Chatfield/Cochetopa Pass/Shaffer Place intersection. An eight-foot wide concrete sidewalk has been added to the project on the east and north sides of Chatfield from Ken Caryl to Kipling.

It is anticipated that the contractor will be finished with all construction by Dec. 31, but this completion date may shift due to unforeseen complications during construction and/or weather delays. For more information on the project, see the Jeffco Transportation and Engineering website at <http://jeffco.us/transportation-and-engineering/projects/>.

Ken-Caryl Ranch will be sharing timely updates on the project in our weekly email newsletter, the Ken-Caryl Ranch e-News. If you haven't signed up for the e-News, go to www.ken-carylranh.org or contact Victoria DeSair at victoriad@kcranch.org or 303-979-1876, ext. 122.

Come See Despicable Me At The Outdoor Movie Night June 23

Submitted by KCR Foundation

The Ken-Caryl Ranch Foundation is showing Despicable Me at its free outdoor movie night for all Ken-Caryl Ranch residents at sundown on Sunday, June 23 at Community Park across from Shaffer Elementary.

Bring a canned good to the movie night, and it will be donated to a local food bank. Come early and bring a blanket and picnic dinner. There will be opportunities to catch up with neighbors, soak up the sunshine, and enjoy snacks and drinks that will be available for purchase.

The Foundation would like to thank the following businesses that are helping to make this movie night possible — Colorado Credit Union, Whole Foods Market Governor's Ranch, Eva Stadelmaier, Geris Zebarth, Inc. and Bolder Staffing.

The Ken-Caryl Ranch Foundation helps support many local causes important to residents. For more information, please visit www.ken-carylranhfoundation.org.

Update On Apartment Complex In Business Center

In August 2012, the Board of County Commissioners (BCC) approved a zoning change to allow for apartments and commercial space in the Ken-Caryl Business Center. This property, officially called the Ken-Caryl Towne Center, is located in the Business Center west of Sunset Ridge, behind the Homewood Suites, extending across Shaffer Parkway to the golf course.

The planned apartments and commercial space includes 250 units on the northeast side of Shaffer Parkway and up to 60 multi-family units above commercial on the southwest side of Shaffer Parkway.

The project is now in the Site Development phase with the County. You can see the full Site Development Plan on the County's website at <http://jeffco.us/planning-and-zoning/> then click on Active Cases and Site Development Plan Active Cases. The case number is 13-106886SD. The County does not hold any public hearings at this stage of the process. All public hearings were held in 2012. If you have questions or comments about the project, you can contact the Case Manager, Alan Tiefenbach, at atiefenb@jeffco.us.

Vandalism At Community Center

Sometime over the weekend of June 8-9, several tires on the Ken-Caryl Ranch Metropolitan District mini-buses parked at the Community Center were slashed, requiring replacement of the tires. A report has been filed with the Jefferson County Sheriff's Office who is investigating the incident. Acts of vandalism like this cost the entire community money. If you have any information that might help the investigation, please call Darrell Windes at the Ranch House at 303-979-1876, ext. 114, or the Jefferson County Sheriff's Office at 303-277-0211.

Back By Popular Demand: Prehistoric Archaeology Presentation

On Dec. 5, 2012, Jack Warner presented a talk on "The Prehistoric Archaeology of Ken-Caryl." The presentation was so popular and well-received that he will be providing it again on Thursday, July 11 at 7 p.m. at the Ranch House Adult Lounge.

Jack's the president of the Denver Chapter of the Colorado Archaeological Society. Jack will be presenting information on the "Seven Big Digs" in Ken-Caryl, which were led by the Denver Chapter of the Colorado Archaeological Society from 1973-1998. The event is hosted by the Ken-Caryl Ranch Historical Society.

Come and discover who and what lived in what's now Ken-Caryl Ranch in prehistoric times up to 8,000 years ago. Mark your calendars and watch Life at Ken-Caryl and the Ken-Caryl Ranch e-News for more information on this interesting and informative presentation.

Manager's Column

by KCRMD District Manager Darrell Windes

The summer of 2013 has begun on Ken-Caryl Ranch! Even though the first official day of summer may be two days away, park and recreation activities throughout the Ranch are in full swing.

The three outdoor pools have now been open for almost a month, and, with the warm weather now upon us, business has been brisk. The youth summer camps are now going on throughout the Ranch as well as the outdoor environmental education opportunities. Outdoor tennis continues to be a popular pastime in the community this time of year as well.

The first Music a la Mode concert of the season took place at the Ranch House Pool last week, and a good time seemed to be had by all in attendance. The Fourth of July is approaching and, once again, the Metropolitan District will feature its annual July 4th concert with the Jim Hyatt Band with all of the all-American trimmings of hot dogs and ice cream.

With so many recreational offerings for the summer on Ken-Caryl Ranch, there is sure to be something for everyone. Check out our 2013 issue of District Dimensions online at the Ken-Caryl Ranch website at www.ken-carylranh.org for all the details.

Now that the weather has turned warm as mentioned earlier in my column, you may notice the parks and greenbelts, which were so green just a few weeks ago, have started to look dry and in need of water. The normal weather for the Colorado summers along the Front Range tends to make the Kentucky bluegrass in the parks and greenbelts go into a dormant state until the cooler weather of late summer and early fall.

With this year's watering restrictions, the Metropolitan District is required to adhere to the same rules as residents, watering only two days per week. If you notice more dry areas in the turf than during some of the more recent years, it is very likely due to the impact of the watering restrictions. We always hope for as much natural moisture as we can get throughout the summer months to help the turf and plants on the Ranch make it through the summer. Once the calendar turns into late August, the cooler nights will improve the look of all of the parks and greenbelts.

Shade Structures Help Keep You Cool

by KCRMA Community Standards Administrator Julie Kearful

With the weather warming up, perhaps it's a good time to talk about finding shade as relief from the sun — that sun that is almost always shining in Colorado.

Many homeowners have chosen to build wooden shade structures over decks and patios, which allow for greater comfort during the daytime hours. Others have chosen retractable canvas awnings as another option to provide shade. A gazebo placed strategically on your property can enhance outdoor living as well. However, metal and plastic awnings are discouraged. If you are thinking of any such addition to your yard, please be sure to submit your plan for architectural review. To download a form, go to www.ken-carylranh.org then Residents and click on Property Improvements.

Please keep in mind that rules and regulations are dynamic in nature...new issues surface, new regulations are added, inappropriate ones are deleted and others simply are amended or updated. Ken-Caryl Ranch documents are available at the Ranch House and on our website at www.ken-carylranh.org so try to make certain you, too, are up-to-date. Also, don't hesitate to call me at 303-979-1876, ext. 119, or email juliek@kcranch.org should you have any covenant or architectural questions or comments. Help will be gladly offered.

Ranger Field Notes

Volunteer Residents Patrolling Trails

by KCRMA Open Space Ranger Matt Owen

If you have been outside recreating on the private trails in the last few weeks, you may have come across one of our Volunteer Patrollers. These individuals are residents and may even be your next-door neighbor! Each volunteer wears a vest with the KCR logo and "Volunteer Patrol" printed on the front. An ID will also be displayed to indicate they are working on behalf of the Ken-Caryl Ranch Park Rangers.

This program is in its second year, and a few more people registered this season, bringing the total number to six. We appreciate each of them in donating their time to educate trail users about Ken-Caryl Ranch Open Space and park rules and the Open Space in general.

Please be courteous to these volunteers as they will be stopping each trail user to check residency. I know the task of stopping and/or reciting your address interrupts your daily bike, hike or run, but it's the way to determine residency on private trails.

A great alternative to avoiding this issue is to obtain your own ID bracelet (electric blue). Go to the Recreation Office at the Ranch House at 7676 South Continental Divide Road or the Community Center at 1 Club Drive. You will need to complete a simple registration form and provide one of these below for proof of residency:

- A valid Colorado Driver's License with current KCR address

- A valid Colorado I.D. with current KCR address
- A valid property tax statement with the applicant's name for the current KCR address
- A valid warranty deed with the applicant's name for the current KCR address.

There is no cost, and bracelets are issued one per individual and are not transferable. All bracelets expire at the end of 2015 at which point new bracelets will be issued. Most importantly, it is not mandatory to have an ID bracelet when using Ken-Caryl Ranch Open Space, but if you have one easily displayed on your wrist, bike handlebars or your dog leash, you can enjoy your activity without answering questions about residency from the Volunteer Patrollers or Park Rangers.

Equestrian Center Summer Camp

There are only a few spots left for the Equestrian Center summer camps. The only camp dates that are still available are the Aug. 12-15 camp for ages 8 and up. The cost is $225.

In this camp, students will learn many aspects of horse care, including handling, body language, psychology, tack cleaning, grooming, feeding and, of course, horseback riding! Kids attend Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 9 a.m. to noon. These camps are appropriate for kids with a variety of horse experience.

You can register at the Equestrian Center Office with cash or check only; we do not accept credit cards. For more information, please call 303-972-8456 or email eqschool@kcranch.org.

Resident Survey FAQs: Paint Color Approval & Neighborhood Signs

The full listing of survey comments and the answers to previous Frequently Asked Questions are available on our website at www.ken-carylranh.org under Community & News then Resident Survey.

How are paint colors approved?

When you decide to paint your home, whether you plan to use a new color or paint using the current colors of your home, your colors need to be submitted for review and approved by the Architectural Committee Consultant prior to beginning your project. There is a form to accompany this submittal that is available at www.ken-carylranh.org or at the front desk of the Ranch House.

Upon review, colors are either approved, denied or the owner may be asked to paint a sample on their home for further review. Colors are considered based on earth-tone substance, compatibility with neighborhoods and general aesthetically-pleasing qualities.

Choosing colors can be a challenging task, but we have a great resource at the Ranch House that might help you make your selection. There are books cataloged by color with samples and addresses for many of the homes on Ken-Caryl Ranch. So you might walk/drive around the neighborhood and find a color you like, then come to the Ranch House to get the specific name and manufacturer. Or come to the Ranch House first and select some color combinations you like then go out and look at them on a house. It is our goal to make this as helpful a process as possible as we realize you will need to live with this decision for many years.

Why do we need neighborhood signs since KCR is fully developed?

It is our belief that Ken-Caryl Ranch owners are proud of their neighborhoods and like to have them identified. They also serve as a helpful guide when giving directions to family, friends and delivery services. Many neighborhoods hold special events within their communities. Some of the neighborhoods also have subassociations in place that oversee specific items for that neighborhood. These items may include covenant enforcement, special events, special amenities, insurance, roofs, landscaping or common area maintenance.

Board Meeting Summary

Joint Study Session

On June 4, the Ken-Caryl Ranch Master Association and Metropolitan District Boards held a Joint Study Session at the Ranch House and discussed the following items:

- A resident requested the Boards' assistance in convincing the County to install speed bumps in an effort to control speeding on Dawn Heath. Specifically to pen a letter of support as well as provide some financial support. The Boards agreed to review when further along in the process. They also asked the resident to alert all other affected parties of this possibility.
- A second resident commented on the health of several pine trees and appreciated staff's response to his inquiry, the success of the Not Just Electronics Recycling Day and plans by the MD to extend the lease on Parcel A.
- A third resident commented on emergency preparedness and suggested that emergency responders be contacted and remind-

- ed of the options for driving out of the Valley.
- Staff presented an update on the status of our playgrounds and the ADA requirements. This discussion will continue as part of the 2014 budget and reserve schedule update.
- Following discussion, the Boards decided to add an hour to the Friday/Saturday night contract security patrol and add a second officer and car to each night.
- The prospect of expanding the background check policy was discussed and a draft policy will be presented for consideration.
- The Board and staff continued preliminary discussion regarding the 2014 budgets in an effort to get an early start to the planning.
- The chair of the Community Planning Committee presented an update on the work completed by the committee to date. Priorities have been identified and estimated costs are being assembled.

Ken-Caryl Home Tour Committee Tours The Action Center

Submitted by Gina Quirk, North Ranch

The Ken-Caryl Ranch Foundation Home Tour Committee recently toured the Action Center in early May to get a first-hand look at how the Center serves individuals and families in need. The proceeds from the upcoming November Home Tour will be donated to this local non-profit, serving Jefferson County residents.

Danielle Marotta, cultivation coordinator at the Action Center, led members through the drop-off donation area, food bank, clothing shop and counseling center. Clothing donations are sorted to stock the clothing center with seasonal items. People in need can visit the store one time a month and select 15 items per visit. Other donations wind up in the hugely successful "Beautiful Junk Sale" which is an annual event.

At the food pantry, persons in need can visit up to six times a year to receive a five-day food supply. The pantry was bustling with activity as volunteers stocked the shelves and helped bag items for clients.

While providing direct relief to individuals and families in times of crisis, the Center also helps clients plan for the future by working directly with a counselor. These counselors help clients navigate the complex social service system and connect them with outside resources and programs. Partnering with agencies and organizations such as Exempla Lutheran and Red Rocks Community College enables the Center to address clinical needs and educational opportunities.

Parents may bring in their children for immunizations, counselors may help young adults organize a plan to earn a G.E.D., or the Center may intervene to stabilize a family's housing situation by providing economic relief for utility services. The goal is to help clients envision a way to move forward after a crisis and steer them toward avenues of independence. This two-fold approach is at the core of the Action Center's mission: "Since 1968, the mission of the Action Center has been to provide an immediate response to basic human needs and promote pathways to self-sufficiency."

All of this could not be accomplished without the help of dedicated volunteers. On average, 80 volunteers fill what would be a paid service position. Volunteers and staff serve an average of 156 households each day and help clients with a variety of needs. The Action Center is always looking for dedicated volunteers or ambassadors who can help spread the word about the Center's mission with other community organizations or businesses.

For more information or to learn how to become a volunteer, call Lorraine at the Action Center at 303-237-7704, ext. 244. The Ken-Caryl Home Tour Committee is eager to support the Action Center and invites you to attend the Home Tour this upcoming November!

Proud To Be American Awards

Submitted by Bill Baldaccini, Deer Creek
 Bill Baldaccini, resident of Deer Creek, is the chairman of the "Proud to be American" committee, Korean War Veterans Denver "Queen City" Chapter No. 195. Seven schools in the Jefferson County School District were awarded the 2012 "Proud to be American" Award. Those schools are Dutch Creek, Elk Creek, Mitchell, Parmalee, Semper, and Stony Creek Elementary Schools, and Standley Lake High School.

No. 195 was awarded the 2013 Outstanding Veterans Service Organization Award by the United Veterans Committee of Colorado, representing more than 450,000 veteran members, in recognition and appreciation for their continued dedication and service to Colorado communities, especially public schools.

The "Proud to be American" Awards program has provided distinction to many schools' patriotic performance, creating an environment where students learn the meaning of service and the requirement to excel scholastically. This effort to promote our American heritage instills patriotism in our youth, thus building a better nation. This unique program benefits and serves as an inspiration to all Coloradans.

Deer Creek resident Bill Baldaccini presents the "Proud to be American" Award to Standley Lake High School.

Items Hauled Away For Free

Submitted by Brian Lee of Deerwood Vista, Greg Milano of The Spread, and Mike and Joy Aden of Bradford Place

Got some stuff hanging around the house that you have been meaning to get rid of? Haven't gotten around to organizing that garage sale or summoned the energy to get rid of that '80s sleeper sofa? What if there was a company that would come pick up almost anything you want to get rid of and haul it away? There is.

Gone For Good is an eco-friendly local company that will pick up most household items, large or small, haul them away and do everything they can to find them a new home or recycle them. Reid Husmer, owner and originator of the concept, and his crew work hard to resell items, donate items to charity, or break them down and recycle. Reduce/Re-sell/Recycle is the mission at Gone For Good.

As a service to the Ken-Caryl community, several agents at Colorado Home Realty are sponsoring a free pickup of one to three items on June 28-29. The normal cost to pick up one to three items is $75. Trucks will pick up items from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. on both days. The drivers will do the lifting and hauling. If you have several items, the cost is $250 for half a truck load and $450 for a full truck. There are discounts on half truck or full truck if there are reusable items.

Please see the Colorado Home Realty ad in this issue on Page 14. To schedule your pickup of your unwanted items, contact your CHR agent or call Kathy Schmitz at 303-951-5883. For more information about Gone For Good, check out the website at www.goneforgoodstore.com.

Dolores A. Ebner — A Lifetime of Volunteering

Submitted by Jeff Allison, Chairman, Ken-Caryl Ranch Historical Society

Recognizing her distinguished work in historic preservation with the Ken-Caryl Ranch Historical Society for the past 19 years, the title Member Emerita was conferred upon Dolores A. Ebner in ceremonies at the Ranch House on May 24. She will continue to serve and contribute to the Ken-Caryl Ranch Historical Society and the Ken-Caryl Ranch community in a reduced role.

You might recognize her as the author of the recurring feature "Did You Know," which was published in Life at Ken-Caryl from 1996 to 2013. It provided vignettes of moments in Ken-Caryl Ranch history based on her extensive research and documentation. She has written two seminal books, The Bradford Years 1859-1876, and John C. Shaffer, that capture the life and spirit of early Ken-Caryl Ranch pioneers.

She began writing at the age of eight and is an accomplished writer and historian. In addition to the books above, she's written a history of the Columbia Heights School and surrounding area and many magazine articles for historic publications, including Colorado Heritage and Historically Jeffco. She has poems in the Library of Congress.

She has been a member of the Historical Society since 1995, including chairperson, promoting awareness and appreciation for the historical and archaeological sites on Ken-Caryl Ranch. Certainly one of her major accomplishments was her work to save the Bradford Perley House. She and her late husband Don (Jeffco Hall of Fame in 2006) worked for more than 10 years to save the historic house. Dolores applied for 40 grants, receiving four that provided the wherewithal, coupled with donations and support from the Master Association and Ken-Caryl Ranch residents, to provide the funds to save the house.

There is probably not a project, big or small, that Dolores has not influenced, participated in or accomplished in the Historical Society. Some of those projects included establishing an archive of documents and photographs, cooperating with the Colorado Archaeological Society in naming historic sites on Ken-Caryl Ranch and the preservation of several significant historical or archaeological sites, including the Bradford Perley House.

It has been a lifetime of volunteer service for Dolores, who has been at it since she was a teenager. She has served the Jefferson County community for more than 50 years in a number of capacities, but it is her work in historic preservation that rises above all. Her efforts have been recognized over the years with major awards. In 2001, she was inducted into the Jefferson County Hall of Fame, which honors those who have contributed notably to the history of Jefferson County. In 2011, she was awarded the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution Historic Preservation Medal. It recognizes individuals who have contributed through their study, dedication and work to a distinguished record in historic preservation.

Dolores has five adult children — Glory,

Julie, David, Debbie and Sherry — sons-in-law Murray Platt and Mark Held, daughter-in-law Donna Ebner and grandsons, Grant and Trevor, who are justifiably proud of what she's done in her many years of service to several communities over the years.

Few people have given as much to their community as Dolores, as she has unselfishly served the Ken-Caryl Ranch community for 22 years. Her diligent work to research and document important elements of the history of Ken-Caryl Ranch has helped to make it a better place in which to live. Thank you, Dolores, from the Ken-Caryl Ranch Historical Several members of the Ken-Caryl Ranch Historical Society gathered on May 24 for a luncheon to thank Dolores Ebner, seated in center, and confer upon her the title of Member Emerita. Dolores was presented with a framed drawing of the Bradford Perley House.

Society, the Master Association and the Ken-Caryl Ranch residents. Your work will live on for years to come as a tribute to your tireless dedication and efforts.

If you have an interest in history and community spirit, consider joining the Ken-Caryl Ranch Historical Society. It meets the third Wednesday of January, April, July and October. Call Jeff Allison at 303-972-0096.

Minding Our Business

Anna Gleave Photography

Resident Aims To Capture Precious Moments For Her Clients
by Community Relations Director Victoria DeSair

Anna Gleave, a Ken-Caryl Ranch resident in the Carriage Hill neighborhood, uses her talents behind the lens to capture special moments for her clients. Anna offers portrait and event photography — senior pictures, engagements, weddings, special events, promotional photographs and family photos. She also offers high-quality prints and products, album designs, videography, invitations and announcements.

After being raised on Ken-Caryl Ranch and attending Chatfield Senior High, she graduated from Brigham Young University in Utah. Anna has been in the photography business for three and a half years, in which time she has shot more than 40 weddings and 100 portrait sessions in locations from coast to coast.

"I am a lover of life, culture and photography. I am easily inspired and love to travel," Anna said. "I recently returned from a trip around the world, where I volunteered and took photographs to help promote various humanitarian projects in places like Peru and Malawi."

Anna said she is constantly studying, experimenting and researching to improve her skills and stay up-to-date with current trends and technologies. She mostly shoots in natural lighting and runs the rest of her business out of her home. She does the bulk of her work herself, but she does have a few part-time employees that help with marketing and editing from time to time.

"Because I work independently and shoot primarily with natural lighting, my photos are completely unique. I allow my clients to select their locations and show me their inspiration for their photos so that I can completely tailor the environment and stylings of the shoot to their liking," Anna said.

"I spend time to personally get to know the client and make them feel comfortable in front of the camera, which makes for an enjoyable, relaxed portrait session — and it really shows in the photos! I do not have a studio to pay for or a large number of employees, so I am able to keep my prices low. I also do not upcharge on printing or products and deliver a DVD of edited images with every shoot, so my clients can print from the professional lab I work with at wholesale prices and view their images at home."

Anna said her favorite thing about her job is capturing a family's precious moments, exalting the everyday beauties of the world and building relationships with her clients.

"I have met so many interesting people through my work and have ended up becoming friends with many of my clients," Anna said. "Because I started my business in Ken-Caryl, many of my initial and most-beloved clients come from Ken-Caryl. I have shot numerous senior portraits of Chatfield, D'Evelyn and Columbine students, several weddings of community members, and a large number of family portraits within the Valley. I am so grateful for the support of the Ken-Caryl community members."

Anna will be offering a basic photography class/workshop on July 27 for DSLR owners who want to learn basic functionality of their cameras, how to compose an image and how to improve their images. If you are interested, contact her at amgleave@gmail.com for details.

For examples of her work, visit www.annagleavephotography.com, or call 720-985-4017 or email amgleave@gmail.com to book a session. Mention this article, and Anna will offer you 15 percent off all shoots booked by the end of June (and to be shot by the end of August).

Volunteers Needed To Design Veterans Monument

The Ken-Caryl Ranch Veterans Monument Committee is seeking volunteers to help design the Veterans Monument. The Master Association Board approved the area north of the front entrance of the Ranch House, where the flagpoles are located to the left of the white railings, as an appropriate site for the Veterans Monument. Anyone is welcome to submit a design plan for the monument, and all help is greatly appreciated. For more information, contact Jeff Esbenshade at 303-972-3968 or esbenshad@aol.com.

"The Doctor of the Future Will Give No Medicine, but Will Interest His Patients in the Care of the Human Frame, in Diet, and in the Cause and Prevention of Disease." ~Thomas Edison

Our new office is based off the KISS strategy: Keep It Simple Superstar. Chiropractic started in 1895 on the premise that the body is a self-healing and self-regulating organism. The innate intelligence of the body needs no help--it also needs no interference.

When spinal bones get "tweaked" out of alignment, they block the vital nerve messages to the body.

In our office we only do one thing: adjust the spine. There are no lotions, potions, magic vitamins or anything else. We do one thing, and we do it well. Adjust the spine, remove the interference and let the body thrive.

If that simple strategy sounds appealing to you, I would love to be your Chiropractor.

Sincerely, Dr. J

Night Fliers

by Environmental Education Specialist Ernie Stone

Who are these night fliers? Bats of course! Bats are the only mammals that can fly. Other mammals, like flying squirrels, can glide but do not fly. To fly, bats need wings. Their wings are made of two layers of thin skin pulled over the bones of their hands. The skin of a bat's wing is very thin, about the thickness of a surgical glove. Some bats' wings are so transparent that you get an almost x-ray type view of the bones and blood vessels. Because bats fly around at night, there are many myths and fears associated with them.

Contrary to popular belief, bats are not blind and therefore will not fly into your hair and become tangled. Bats do not use their eyes to hunt at night because it is too dark. Instead they use high-pitched squeaks beyond the limits of human hearing to bounce off of objects. By interpreting the echoes produced by their calls, bats can navigate and locate prey in total darkness. This method is called echolocation.

Bats are not big carriers of rabies. Bats actually carry fewer diseases than our household pets. There are almost 1,000 species of bats and only three are true vampires, all three of which live in the tropics of Mexico, Central America and South America. Rarely do vampire bats feed on the blood of humans.

Bats play an important role in the health of the whole ecosystem and can be found in any part of the world except some deserts and Polar regions. Bats are the only major predators of night-flying insects. Bat guano, poop, is an important fertilizer in many parts of the world, and bats contribute to medical research. Bats are the major source of pollinators of flowers and dispersal of seeds of many popular tropical fruits.

Despite the positive value of bats, they are one of the most misunderstood, feared and persecuted mammals on earth. Millions are killed each year because of these misunderstandings, use of pesticides, lack of habitat and well-meaning cavers.

Colorado has 18 species of bats, which are all classified by Colorado Parks and Wildlife as non-game mammals and are protected by law. Only bats creating a nuisance in dwellings can legally be killed.

If you would like more information about bats, join me for the Let's Go Batty program on Friday, July 12 from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. at the Dakota Lodge. For other Environmental Education programs, check the Ken-Caryl Ranch website at www.ken-caryl.org or Pages 12 and 13 of this paper.

Kids Raise Money For Tornado Victims

On Memorial Day weekend, Eagles Pointe residents Riley Wank and Kristin, Katie and Nicole Matuszynski raised $330 selling lemonade and cookies at the corner of Club Drive and Valley Parkway. All proceeds went directly to the Red Cross to benefit the Oklahoma tornado victims. The girls were impressed with the generosity of the community. Several residents even "rounded up" and gave $5-$10 for a cup of lemonade or a cookie. Thank you to these girls and all the bighearted Ken-Caryl Ranch residents for helping make a difference.

The team is hosting a camp for incoming fifth through eighth-grade girls July 31 through Aug. 2 in the Chatfield Main Gym. Start and end time to be determined. The camp is $50 and includes a t-shirt. Forms and information will be available soon at www.chatfieldvolleyball.com.

The team's annual camp for incoming ninth through 12th-graders will be held Aug. 5-8 in the Chatfield Main Gym. Start and end time to be determined. The camp is $50 and includes a t-shirt. This is a great way to tune up for try-outs, but is not required for try-outs. Forms and information will be available soon at www.chatfieldvolleyball.com.

A pre-tryout parent meeting will be held on Aug. 6 in the Chatfield Auditorium and try-outs will be held Aug. 12-14 in the Main Gym. Chatfield fields four teams each year, Level 4, Level 3, Junior Varsity and Varsity.

The Chatfield Senior High Girls' volleyball program will host several camps and clinics this summer.

growth of the volleyball program at Chatfield. For more information, contact Coach Schick at ssschick@jeffco.k12.co.us or visit www.chatfieldvolleyball.com.

"We Change The World One Child At A Time."

Discover the best of both worlds — a play-based preschool program alongside structured learning — at Jordan Alexander's Preschool Academy!

JAPA teachers combine the center's thematic curriculum with academic concepts in conjunction with play-based methods to support each child's total development. The Colorado Department of Education's Building Blocks curriculum model serves as our starting point: teachers plan and implement age-specific learning domains infusing each activity with classroom-specific creativity. This innovative curriculum approach is successful in regard to addressing and mediating the division that exists between academic and play-based schools of thoughts in an early childhood educational setting, proving that there is a happy medium: Jordan Alexander's Preschool Academy.

On The Market

Home Remodeling Tips

Submitted by Eva Stadelmaier, Re/Max Professionals

Editor's Note: On The Market is a new, regular column in Life at Ken-Caryl. It will feature tips and trends related to real estate and increasing the value of your home. The column will be written by a different local realtor each issue.

People buying a house look first at kitchens and bathrooms. So while these rooms can be the most expensive to re-do, they are more likely to pay for themselves. Remodeling your kitchen or bathrooms is the best investment you can make with returns well over 100 percent. If you are able to freshen only one room in your house, I would advise you to make it the kitchen. An upgraded kitchen always gives back, and these days kitchens are now the "new living room and family room." The heart of the home is the kitchen. Here is a list of the Top 10 Remodeling Tips from the American Homeowners Foundation.

Top 10 Remodeling Tips

Tip 1: Compare The Cost Of Moving To Remodeling. Moving is expensive, typically involving a 6 percent commission on the sale of your current home, plus another 2-4 percent for closing, moving and other costs. If you like the present neighborhood, then look into what improvements you could make with 8-10 percent of your home's current value before you decide to move.

Tip 2: Design Ahead. You don't want to come up with an additional brilliant idea right after the job is complete. You can reduce the risk by doing some advance research. Read up on design, talk to friends with knowledge and experience with the type of remodeling you're considering, and get suggestions and references from architects and remodelers while you're in the early stages of planning.

Tip 3: Don't Over Improve. This may be of less concern if you plan to remain in the home for a long time, but it's very important if you're remodeling to sell your home. Some remodeling jobs, such as an overhaul of a very dated bath or kitchen or the addition of a second bath, can return more than 100 percent of the cost at the sale of the home and help you sell it faster. However, if you want a different look, you'll probably not recover the investment in a home that is already more valuable than most others in the neighborhood.

The buyer reconfigured the layout of the kitchen and installed new cabinets, countertops and appliances for a high-end update.

Tip 4: Allow Plenty Of Time For The Job. Murphy's Law applies to remodeling. If you expect a contractor to compress a six-week job into four weeks, you're asking for trouble. Also, you can save money and probably get the job done faster if you have the ability to schedule it in the off-season when contractors have fewer jobs to bid on.

Tip 5: Check The Remodeler's Credentials — Carefully. Are they licensed and insured for workers compensation, property and personal liability? Do they belong to the National Association of the Remodeling Industry, the National Association of Home Builders Remodelers Council, and/or any of the more specific trade associations in the remodeling sector? Ask for recent references on similar jobs, and check their record with the Better Business Bureau.

Tip 6: Request A Comprehensive Bid. It should detail as many of the specifications as possible. Get bids from three remodelers. If one of the bids is unusually low, make sure that they have included everything. If they have, make sure you've thoroughly covered tip No. 5.

Tip 7: Consider Doing Some Of The

Work Yourself. If the bids are higher than expected and too much for you to afford, you might be surprised how much money you can save. But make sure you're not getting into something you don't have time to do. Things that come up near the end of the job, such as painting, finish carpentry, etc., are good bets.

Tip 8: Get A Comprehensive Written Contract. It will greatly reduce the likelihood of disputes with your remodeler. Most disputes arise over issues that were not resolved in advance. Make sure it covers the description of the project, timetable, payment schedule, etc., with general provisions defining the responsibility of the contractor and the subcontractors, defects and correction, change order procedures, warranties, right to termination and alternative dispute settlement mechanisms.

Tip 9: Consider Buying Certain Building Materials In Advance. Styles for appliances and other building materials and suppliers are subject to change and are often heavily discounted when they go out of production. If there's a style you like very much, it may not be available next year, so consider buying and storing them when you see a really good deal.

Tip 10: Be Careful About Financing. If you're financing the project, you want the lowest rate possible and you want the interest to be tax deductible. Only certain types of loans will give you an interest deduction so check with an expert. In some cases, refinancing your mortgage can be the best bet.

Don't Let Your Foliage Become A Public Hazard

Please make sure that your shrubs are not creating obstacles by covering sidewalks and that trees are trimmed back to avoid obscuring street signs. If your property is adjacent to a greenbelt area, make sure tree branches are not protruding through the fence creating a hazard for mow crews.
