Team members from the Ken-Caryl Ranch Parent Network will also be in attendance to register families and tell you more about their line-up of special-interest groups and special events for the upcoming year.

The Ranch House pool will be open at 10 a.m. so bring your suits and sunscreen for fun in the sun! Come join your friends and neighbors for a FREE day of family fun to celebrate the end of summer. We'd like to thank our sponsors, Chick-fil-A, LAUND-UR-MUTT, Susan Schell of Re/Max and Little Gym of West Littleton, for contributing and helping to make this event a success! For more information on the Youth and Family Fair, please visit our website at www.ken-carylranh.org.

The Boys 8 and Under Relay Team finished second place in the State Championships in the 100 Meter Freestyle Relay, just missing first place by .46 seconds. In addition, the relay team secured fourth place in the 100 Meter Medley Relay. This is the fastest Ken-Caryl freestyle and medley relay team in Club and South Jeffco League history, breaking both the Club and League record times. ## Back To School Time

It's that time of year again...back to school! Are you looking for one-stop shopping for back-to-school information? Look no further than Jeffco's Back-to-School website at http://www.jeffcopublicschools.org/back\_to\_school. The page has links to registration dates, school supply lists, immunization information, SchoolMessenger, Jeffco Connect, the 2012-13 school calendar and fee information. The first day of school for most Jeffco schools is Aug. 20, but check with your individual school for schedule variations. Parents and students will need to check with schools for teacher assignments, class schedules and school-specific documents.

New Sports Added To Recreation Class Lineup

Several new sports classes have been added to the Recreation class lineup for the fall. There's a new softball league and horseshoe league for adults. For kids ages 3 to 7, there are several "Future Stars" classes that will teach fundamentals of soccer, tee ball, outdoor sports, and track and field. See page 11 in the Recreation Activities section for details.

KC2020 Community Plan Survey

Why Are We Surveying Residents?

All Ken-Caryl Ranch residents will be asked to participate in a Community Plan Survey in September to get feedback on what they want in their Community Plan. The Community Plan Survey will ask questions about desired levels and quality of services, facilities, amenities, infrastructure, community appearance, fees, dues and taxes. We will be using a professional survey company, and our target is to survey 100 percent of Ken-Caryl Ranch households. The survey will be distributed by mail in September.

How Do I Stay Informed?

In order to keep residents informed about the survey, we are asking for email addresses. There will be a weekly drawing for a $10 Starbucks gift card for all who register! The email addresses will only be used for survey communications. You can provide us your email address one of three ways:

- Go to Ken-CarylRanch.org and click on "Email Subscription Service" toward the bottom of the home page. Check the box for "Resident Surveys" to sign up.
- Email your name, email address and mailing address to KC2020@kcranch.org
- Text your name, email address and mailing address to 720-722-4133.

KC2020 Update: Survey Is Next Step

A volunteer group of residents and staff recently evaluated survey firm proposals and interviewed four highly-qualified community survey firms, then made its recommendation to the KC2020 Task Force. RRC Associates was selected to work with the committee and the KC2020 Task Force to create the Community Plan Survey questions and distribute the survey to all households on Ken-Caryl Ranch.

The purpose of the KC2020 Community Plan Survey is to establish the community's vision for the future of Ken-Caryl Ranch, which will help the Boards and staff to prioritize investments and expenditures for years to come. Staff and volunteers are collecting comparative information about finances, amenities and facilities from other communities to further inform KCR members before and during their completion of the survey.

KC2020 updates and history are posted at www.ken-carylranh.org/administration/kc2020-community-plan/.

Manager's Column

by KCRMD District Manager Darrell Windes

As you are reading this column, we have reached the mid-point of the month of August in the summer of 2012. In less than a week, school will be starting at all Jefferson County Public schools located on Ken-Caryl Ranch. This time each year signals the beginning of the end of summer. As you may have noticed, the Bradford Pool closed for the season Aug. 12. Beginning Aug. 20, the Ranch House Pool will be closed on weekdays but will be open on weekends through Monday, Sept. 3. The Community Center pool will continue to have daily swim hours through Labor Day. See the pool hours on page 15 of this paper.

It seems like it was just yesterday the recreation staff of the Metropolitan District was scrambling to get the pools ready to open for the upcoming busy summer. In the past three months, there has been a flurry of activity throughout Ken-Caryl Ranch in enjoying the activities of summer. It has been a time for enjoying the parks and Open Spaces of the community as well as the wide variety of organized recreational programming, which is offered for all age groups. Three Music ala Mode events were well attended at the Ranch House Pool on beautiful Colorado summer evenings.

The final swimming pool event of the season will be coming up on Saturday, Sept. 8 when the Ranch House Pool is opened up to the swimmers of the four-legged variety. This year marks the seventh annual Doggie Dip Day with events like diving, water retrieval and a swimsuit contest. This has become one of our most popular events each year and has become a fitting way to officially close the pool season until the next summer.

The Metropolitan District staff and Board have begun the process of developing the 2013 budget. A Town Meeting in conjunction with the Master Association Board will be held on Tuesday, Sept. 11 at 6 p.m. at the Ranch House to solicit input from residents on community services being planned for the upcoming year. The Metropolitan District draft 2013 budget will be available for review by the community on Oct. 15 followed by a public hearing on the budget to be held in the fall. The Metropolitan District Board of Directors will officially adopt the 2013 budget at a Board meeting on Dec. 11. Watch for more information on development of the 2013 budget in upcoming issues of Life at Ken-Caryl and on the Ken-Caryl Ranch website at www.ken-carylranh.org.

Keep Boats And Campers Out Of Sight

by Community Standards Administrator Julie Kearful

I really enjoy the water, and boats are among my favorite things. It is clear that many folks living on Ken-Caryl Ranch share that feeling — along with the love of camping. Just want to remind everyone, once again, of the rules regarding these toys that we enjoy. Section 4.05 of the Master Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions states, in part, that boats, campers and other recreation vehicles shall not be permitted to remain anywhere on KCR unless properly screened from view. Recognizing that some of us NEED these items and in an effort to accommodate, the Ken-Caryl Ranch Master Association Architectural Committee has adopted rules that allow residents to park a boat, camper or RV in the driveway for two days during a seven-day period. These two days are intended for loading prior to a trip and unloading afterward before returning to a storage facility.

Please keep in mind that rules and regulations are dynamic in nature...new issues surface, new regulations are added, inappropriate ones are deleted and others simply are amended or updated. Ken-Caryl Ranch documents are available at the Ranch House and on our website at www.ken-carylranh.org so try to make certain you, too, are up-to-date. Also, don't hesitate to contact me at 303-979-1876, ext. 119 or email juliek@kcranch.org should you have any covenant or architectural questions or comments. Help will be gladly offered.

Fuel Break Work On Tincup To Begin In Late August

by KCRMA Open Space Ranger Gary Norton

In 2010, the KCRMA Board of Directors approved the Forest Stewardship plan that was completed by the Colorado State Forest Service in 2006. The 10-year plan calls for thinning of overgrown forests and shrub lands to improve overall forest health and remove excessive wildfire fuels. The plan also recommends creating fuel breaks to help protect Open Space resources from catastrophic wildfires. At the end of August, work will commence on the fuel break portion of the plan on Tincup (See map below).

The primary function of a fuel break is to break up the continuity of fuels in a forest and to provide an area where the fire will slow down and be more easily controlled. The fuel break on Tincup will be created by separating the crowns of trees by at least 10 feet, pruning remaining trees 6-10 feet, removing ladder fuels from under trees and by removing downed woody material. The work on the fuel break will start at the end of August and last for approximately two weeks. The KCRMA Board of Directors has chosen The Natural Way Inc. to perform the work. The Natural Way has extensive expertise in fuels mitigation projects and has implemented projects for Castle Pines, Lockheed Martin, the Garden of the Gods and on the Manor House service road in 2011.

Please contact Gary Norton at 303-904-0249 with any questions regarding the Forest Stewardship plan or the Tincup fuel break work.

Your Dues & Taxes At Work

This picture shows concrete being laid on the North Massey Draw Trail. Part of the Trails Master Plan is to convert asphalt paths to concrete. Concrete has a longer life, and it provides a smoother surface for many of our trail users like folks pushing strollers. It also facilitates snow plowing. The change from asphalt to concrete will take place over a 10-year period, and the Master Association is currently in the third year of the project. $100,000 per year is being spent on the conversion. The pathway sections that are in most need are being done first. For questions about the project, contact Master Association Executive Director Chris Pacetti at chrisp@kcranch.org.

Development Update

Board Of County Commissioners Hearing For Ken-Caryl Towne Center

A Board of County Commissioners (BCC) hearing is planned for Aug. 28 at 8 a.m. regarding the Ken-Caryl Towne Center zoning change. The Planning Commission met on Aug. 8 and made recommendations regarding the zoning change. They recommended approval of the proposed rezoning with a reduction of the allowed height in Use Area 2 to 55 feet. This property is located in the Business Center west of Sunset Ridge, behind the Homewood Suites extending across Shaffer Parkway to the golf course. If approved, the amendment would allow for an additional 160 multi-family units. The existing allowable uses (160 units along with office and retail use) and height restrictions would remain in place.

The public hearing will be held in Hearing Room One of the Jefferson County Administration and Courts Facility, 100 Jefferson County Parkway in Golden. The proposal is to amend the planned development zoning to allow up to 320 multi-family units and retain the existing commercial uses. Documents related to the application are posted on the Planning and Zoning website at <http://planning.jeffco.us> then click on Active Cases.

KCR Community Garden Accepting Lottery Applications For 2013

The Ken-Caryl Ranch Community Garden has decided to initiate a lottery this fall for 2013. If a current gardener enters the lottery and is awarded a plot they can plant a "cover crop" over the winter and also add nutrients this fall that would enrich the soil for the next growing season. New gardeners would take possession of their plots on Nov. 2 and could do the same.

All current and new gardeners are invited to submit an application by Sept. 7. A lottery will be held on Sept. 10 with all the applicants having an equal chance at securing a plot. Please review the guidelines and download an application at www.kencarylcommunitygarden.org. Mail the completed application to Jessica Mullins, membership chairperson at 3 Canyon Alder, Littleton, CO, 80127. Winners will be notified on Sept. 12. No money is due until your name is selected for a garden plot. The prices for the plots will not change from previous years and are as follows:

- Small Plots (approximately 4' x 8') @ $100 each
- Large Plots (approximately 7' x 8') @ $150 each

The KCR Community Garden has committee and leadership opportunities available if you would like to become involved in the management of the garden. Please contact kcgarden@hotmail.com for more information.

Fire Restrictions Lifted In Jefferson County

Effective Aug. 1, the Jefferson County Sheriff lifted the temporary fire restriction order for all areas of unincorporated Jefferson County. Recent rainfall and cooler temperatures have reduced the danger of wildfire; however, people are encouraged to be vigilant as the danger of fire is always present in the high country. Many people will continue to enjoy the mountains and parks through the remainder of the season and citizens should be reminded to use caution when starting and extinguishing campfires, disposing of lighted cigarettes and other activities that involve the use of fire or sparks. Warm and windy days can quickly lower the fuel moisture content of trees and grasses, making them susceptible to ignition.

West Metro Fire Rescue Earns Accreditation

West Metro Fire Rescue was awarded accreditation by the Commission on Fire Accreditation International on Aug. 2 at the Commission's meeting at the Fire Rescue International (FRI) Conference in Denver. The accreditation is valid for five years. West Metro Fire was one of 28 fire departments up for accreditation in front of the eight-member Commission panel.

"This is an enormous achievement for entire department," said Chief Don Lombardi. "We have been evaluated by our peers and found to have met or exceeded national standards."

The accreditation process gives West Metro Fire Rescue the opportunity to assess and evaluate our fire and emergency service as well as gives us a model for continuous improvement and a method of providing the highest level of service to our community, Lombardi said.

Accreditation takes an in-depth look at the organization's Governance and Administration, Essential Resources, Training and Competency and many other performance categories. West Metro is one of eight organizations in Colorado to achieve this designation and approximately 145 out of 30,000 that have become accredited.

To become accredited, the agency must go through a thorough self-assessment process as well as a community risk analysis, standards of cover and strategic planning. Then these documents are reviewed by a peer assessment team who conducts an on-site visit once the documents are approved. Finally, the peer assessment team submits a report on its recommendation for accreditation to the agency and a hearing is held in front of the commission to defend the report.

Register For Trail ID Bracelets

Volunteer patrollers will be at the Manor House kiosk on Aug. 25 and Sept. 8 (Manor House/Colorow Trail) from 8 a.m. to noon registering residents and distributing pink Ken-Caryl Ranch Open Space identification bracelets. Residents can wear the bracelets while using the trails to avoid being asked for proof of residency.

There is no cost. Bracelets are issued one per individual and are not transferable. All bracelets expire at the end of 2012 at which point new bracelets will be issued. Most importantly, it is not mandatory to have an ID bracelet when using Ken-Caryl Ranch Open Space, but if you don't have an ID bracelet, Park Rangers have to stop and ask you to identify yourself and prove residency.

To receive a bracelet, residents will need to provide one of the following items to prove residency:

1. Valid Colorado driver's license with current KCR address.
2. A valid Colorado ID with current KCR address.
3. A valid property tax statement with the applicant's name for the current KCR address.
4. A valid warranty deed with the applicant's name for the current KCR address.

If you have any questions, please call Park Ranger Matt Oven at 303-904-0249 or email matto@kcranch.org.

Jeffco School District Bond Ratings Remain Healthy

Jeffco's strong financial management was recently reviewed and affirmed by national credit ratings agencies Standard & Poor's Corporation and Moody's Investor Service. Jeffco maintained its AA- (S&P) and AA2 (Moody's) ratings. Both of those ratings speak to the district's sound financial practices in spite of declining revenues and challenging economic times.

The ratings were affirmed in conjunction with the district refinancing a portion of its current outstanding general obligation bond debt. The refinancing will lower the borrowing cost for district bonds issued in 2004 and 2006.

"The current market environment for such bonds is experiencing record low interest rates. The district is taking advantage of these rates to lower borrowing costs for the benefit of taxpayers," said Jeffco's Chief Financial Officer Lorie Gillis.

The district reduced the repayment obligation for the bonds by $6.1 million by reducing the interest rate from 4.95 percent to 2.7 percent. Standard and Poor's commended the district's financial management saying, "We consider the district's management practices to be 'strong' under Standard and Poor's financial management assessment methodology."

Minding Our Business

Illuminations Brings Light To The Ken-Caryl Area

by Community Relations Director Victoria DeSair

Family-owned businesses are an important part of Ken-Caryl Ranch, and Illuminations By Design can stretch its roots all the way back to 1960.

Sean and Janelle Lind are the owners of the lighting showroom located at 8020 Shaffer Parkway. The business was originally started as an electrical contracting company in 1960 by Sean's grandfather. It has now transformed into a lighting showroom that caters to both homeowners and builders. When Sean and Janelle took over in 2004, they saw a need for more lighting wholesalers in the Denver area. They began operating as a wholesale lighting operation, working directly with builders and designers. In 2008, they decided to open the showroom to the public, and now about 30 percent of their business is the retail side.

"We have a little of everything," said Janelle. "We have lighting for the average homebuyer and for million-dollar homes. We offer a variety of price points."

Janelle stresses that lighting is very important in a home. She said that homeowners sometimes spend thousands of dollars to remodel their home, but then they don't do the right lighting so the remodeling isn't highlighted. Illuminations By Design encourages shoppers to make an appointment with one of their designers who will offer personal lighting help. The designers can educate about the technical aspects, including energy efficiency.

"You don't have to go to fluorescent bulbs to save energy," she said. Janelle said you can add dimmers to save energy, and the dimmers can control the light and create a mood.

Illuminations By Design has several offers available to help save consumers some money. You can sign up for their monthly emails at www.illuminationsbydesign.net or you can "Like" them on Facebook and receive a special coupon. They also have a semi-annual warehouse and floor sample sale in October and again in the spring.

Illuminations By Design is open Monday through Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Library News

It's Your Lucky Day At Jefferson County Public Library

Do you wish you could read the latest New York Times best seller or watch a new-release DVD today? You may be in luck! Jefferson County Public Library is offering a new "Lucky Day" collection of popular books and materials at all 10 Jefferson County Public Library (JCPL) locations.

Each "Lucky Day" collection includes high-demand adult fiction and non-fiction, children's and teens' fiction and newly released DVDs. Lucky Day items may not be placed on hold and may only be checked out by walk-in cardholders. They are kept on-shelf at all JCPL libraries and, when available, can be borrowed instantly on a first-come, first-served basis.

Sample titles in the inaugural collection include The Innocent by David Baldacci, Gone Girl by Gillian Flynn, Hunger Games by Suzanne Collins, Pete the Cat: I Love My White Shoes by Eric Litwin and the DVD,

Girl with the Dragon Tattoo.

"When demand for popular materials is really high, patrons often have to wait for weeks to check out an item," said Pam Nissler, executive director, JCPL. "With these new collections, patrons should be able to come into our libraries, find titles from the latest best-seller and DVD-release lists and take them home the same day.

"Many other library systems have implemented this concept to the overwhelming delight of their patrons," Nissler added. "We want to offer Jefferson County residents the same opportunity to have a Lucky Day experience."

Items in the Lucky Day collection are chosen by staff to match the community's tastes in popular, high-demand titles. They are housed in special displays in high-traffic areas and identified with a special Lucky Day ladybug sticker. Lucky Day display areas are restocked frequently and consistently throughout the day.

For more information, visit your local library or go to jeffcolibrary.org/luckyday.

Fun For Everyone At The Equestrian Center Open House

Several hundred people attended the Equestrian Center Open House Saturday, July 28, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The Open House replaced the long-running Buffalo Day. Although there is no longer Mutton Bustin' or a chili contest, there were several fun events to keep the crowd entertained.

People could participate in a scavenger hunt by riding a horse, biking or walking through the trails in search of clues and prizes. Kids loved the petting zoo and pony rides provided by Noah's Ark, and the Schooling Show gave Riding School students and boarders the opportunity to show off their skills on their horses.

There was also a new game this year called Poop Squares. Squares were painted inside a pen, and each square had a number in it. For $.50, participants could "purchase" a square. After a horse was placed inside the pen, everyone waited to see which square the horse would poop in. The buyer of the "lucky" square won a prize. Other games were "Paint the Pony" and "Guess Her Weight." There was also a Dog Agility Contest where participants could bring their dog and test its intelligence and speed on the course set up in the arena.

A special thanks to everyone who helped plan the event and to the great crowd who attended.

Bobcats On KC Ranch by Environmental Education Specialist Ernie Stone

While stopping at the Community Garden last week to water my Environmental Education plot, I was excited to finally see the bobcat that lives in Brannon Gearhart Park.

Bobcats are small wildcats about twice the size of a large house cat. They have furry tufts at the tips of their ears and a short "bobbed" tail. The "bobbed" tail is how they got their name.

Bobcats belong to the cat family. This family is divided into three groups. The big cats like African lions and tigers are one group. The cheetah is the only member of the second group. All Colorado cats including the bobcat, lynx and mountain lion belong to the third group, which is the small cat group. All small cats can purr while the other two groups of cats cannot purr.

A fully-grown bobcat is 2- to 4-feet long from its nose to the tip of its tail. It is up to 2-foot tall at the shoulder and weighs up to 25 pounds. Males are a third larger than the females. A bobcat's fur is usually reddish tan.

This color is also called "bay." So the bobcat is sometimes called the bay lynx. Many bobcats have dark streaks or spots on their fur that help them hide in the shadows. Bobcats have white spots on the backs of their ears. These spots help the kittens follow their mother even at night when they are old enough to join her in a hunt. Bobcats hunt for birds, mice and other small rodents. Their favorite food is rabbit. On rare occasions, a bobcat has been known to take down a young deer or porcupine.

Bobcats live here on the Ranch. However, with their nocturnal habits and secretive ways they are rarely seen. A bobcat's territory can be as small as a square mile if there is enough food or up to 25 square miles if food is scarce.

Bobcat kittens are usually born in the spring but can be born any time of the year. A bobcat mother usually has a litter of two or three kittens. Each kitten weighs less than a pound and is covered with short, spotted fur. The kittens' eyes are closed tight. They do not open until the kittens are 9 to 10 days old. The kittens will nurse until they are about three months old. Bobcat kittens stay with their mother until they are about nine months old. By then they are almost fully-grown and can take care of themselves. When the young bobcats are a year old, they will start their own families.

Ken-Caryl Lightning Races At Swimming State Championships

Submitted by Sarah Manion, Carriage Hill

It seemed only fitting that the day following the start of the 2012 Summer Olympics that our own top competitors would battle it out against some of the state's fastest swimmers in the 2012 Colorado State Summer Swim Club Championships in their own personal quest to bring home "the gold."

More than a thousand swimmers ages 6 to 18 from 60 swim teams from throughout Colorado gathered the weekend of July 27 at The Splash at Fossil Trace in Golden to vie for top honors. Out of the 166 swimmers in the Ken-Caryl Swim Club, 22 qualified for the state meet. To qualify, team members must swim a specified time in each particular event.

Coach Polly Boen along with the swim club's assistant coaches worked tirelessly since the end of May to help qualify and prepare swimmers for this end of season championship meet. And, despite intense competition, a number of KC Lightning swimmers rose to the occasion and secured top five finishes along with beating all-time Ken-Caryl Swim Club and South Jeffco League record times (top 12 results shown below).

Congratulations to the following Ken-Caryl swimmers who qualified for the state meet: Jordan Breen, Micaela Clode, Taylor Ducklow, Gunnar Holmes, Spencer Kauffman, Maxwell Kempe, Sydney Meegan, Jordan Morgan, Jessica Rose, Spencer Shute, Abigail Storm, Gracey Tolbert, Jack Tolbert, Lexi Tolbert, Avery Turney, Evan Turney, Grant Walters, Mitchell Walters, Morgan Walters, James Waugh, Caitlyn Wayment and Taylor Wayment.

Kate competed in the Youth-14 Women's Saber, Ryan in the Under-19 and Under-16 Men's Saber and Lauren in the Youth-12 Women's Saber.

Kate, Ryan and Lauren all train with Tom Strzalkowski at the Fencing Academy of Denver. The Fencing Academy sent 18 competitors to the National Championships. Tom was a member of the 1996 U.S. Olympic fencing team. In 1994 and 1995, he competed on the World Championship teams and was a member of the gold medal team at the Pan-American Games. He is a 1995 graduate of Penn State, where he was the team captain in 1993 and 1994. He is a three-time NCAA champion and a four-time All-American. Tom also competed at this summer's National Championships. He won 1st place in the 40-and-Over Saber Division and also was a member of the 40-and-Over Saber Team that won gold.

"I am very grateful that Gina Hawk allowed me to start a beginner fencing class at Ken-Caryl Ranch House four years ago," said Tom. "That first class of 44 kids and adults turned into a full-time Fencing Academy, which sent 18 competitors to Summer Nationals this year."

"It's wonderful to be able to compete with the caliber of fencers at the national level," said Doug Zimmerman, dad of Ryan and Lauren. "Coach Tom seems to know everyone, so he is always introducing fencers from the Academy to the coaches at the selective college teams, too."

Tom will be teaching a youth beginner fencing class this fall at the Ranch House. The 12-week class is for ages 8-16, and it will be held Thursdays from Sept. 13 through Dec. 6 (No class Nov. 22) from 5:30-6:15 p.m. The fee for the class is $180 for residents and $210 for non-residents. ## Local Vet Clinic Washed Dogs For Charity

Submitted by Susan Lummanick, All Breed Rescue Network

Dr. Kim Crawford, a veterinarian who lives in the Ken-Caryl Valley, had a really sudsy afternoon a few weeks ago.

Dr. Kim and the people who work at her Chatfield Veterinary Hospital on West Ken Caryl Ave. donated their time and TLC to wash more than 65 dogs to raise money for All Breed Rescue Network. They also clipped a lot of paw nails during the charity event on July 28.

Veterinarians and other clinic personnel also demonstrated the new cold laser machine, which helps relieve an animal's spinal pain from injury or arthritis. Trainers were on hand to discuss behavior problems and dog training sessions available at the clinic. Visitors could tour the clinic, boarding facility and daycare areas.

Visitors also participated in drawings for a Kindle, dog beds, a free night of dog boarding at the clinic or a large bag of dog food. All proceeds from donations and the dog wash were donated to All Breed Rescue Network to help pay the rescue's vet bills for the dogs that they care for. All Breed Rescue Network is a Colorado group of more than 100 breed-specific dog rescues. Representatives from Japanese Chin, Miniature Schnauzer and St. Bernard Rescues were on site with adoptable dogs and literature about their breed and about dog adoption.

You can learn more about Chatfield Veterinary Hospital, its compassionate people and its professional services at the hospital's website, www.chatfieldvet.com. You can also learn about dog rescue and adoption for a huge variety of breeds at the All Breed Rescue Network website, www.allbreedrescue.com.

Don't Let Your Foliage Become A Public Hazard

Please make sure that your shrubs are not creating obstacles by covering sidewalks and that trees are trimmed back to avoid obscuring street signs. If your property is adjacent to a greenbelt area, make sure tree branches are not protruding through the fence creating a hazard for mow crews.

Shaffer Team Returns From Sister School In Kenya

Shaffer Elementary fourth-grade teacher Julie Manuel led a team from the school that traveled to Kenya in June and July to visit Ronesa Preparatory School. Ronesa is Shaffer's sister school in Kenya, and students from Julie's Shaffer class filled backpacks with supplies for the students at Ronesa. PTA President Andrea Bratis, second-grade teacher Deb Gardner, their husbands, and former PTA President Erik Phillips and his family all joined Julie in Kenya. The team delivered the supplies and also helped teach at the school.

"Because of the school supplies we brought, we were able to teach them math skills, English skills and even art skills as they were each given their own paper to practice those skills on," said Julie. "This is a luxury and something they are not used to receiving. Just teaching them how to use scissors

Ronesa students were excited to have their own supply boxes that included scissors, markers and several other supplies.

The students showed off their recorders that were brought by the Phillips family.

Members of the Maasai community gave handmade jewelry to Julie Manuel, shown here on the left, and the other women in the Shaffer group. The jewelry was given as a symbol of their love and thanks.

"Her idea took off, and we had 12 goats and 10 chickens to deliver once we got to Maasailand," said Julie. "We were able to deliver goats/chickens to some of the most needy in Maasailand. Those were some of the most touching moments as you quickly realized that you weren't just giving them a goat, but you were literally giving them a gift that will keep on giving."

When Erik, his wife Missy and their daughters Allison, 13, and Lindsey, 11, arrived in Kenya, they got to really experience the people and culture at a very personal level. Allison and Lindsey were former students of Julie's at Shaffer. They were very involved with helping Julie get this idea of building a school in Kenya off the ground three years ago, so it was especially exciting for them to actually be at the school that they've been raising funds for these last few years. They brought with them the gift of music; recorders for every one of the children and teachers.

"They demonstrated and patiently taught the children how to make sounds from this funny Mzungu [white-faced people] instrument," said Julie. "Even the teachers were excited to learn, and I have no doubt we will hear them playing their 'flutes' next summer when we return."

"For Deb and I it was wonderful to return to our beloved Maasai community, but even more special to experience it through our husbands' eyes," Julie said. "For them, they were beyond words with how special it was to experience Maasailand. But more importantly, I think they now understand why they lose their wives to Africa every summer."

Julie is planning to return every summer and hopefully take different groups along with her. The next steps to help Ronesa are to build another classroom, construct a teachers' office, finish the kitchen and finish the latrines.

Make Sure Your Kids Are Traveling Safely For Back-To-School

The Colorado Department of Transportation, Colorado State Patrol and other members of CPS Team Colorado are helping parents and caregivers make sure their children are in the right car seat or booster seat to keep them safe in a motor vehicle. According to a study from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA), three out of four kids are not as secure as they should be because their car seats are not being used correctly.

"Parents have a tendency to move their child to the next type of car seat, booster seat or even an adult seat belt earlier than is recommended," said Corporal Heather Cobler, Colorado State Patrol. "But each change may be a step down in safety, depending on the age and size of the child. It is important to read the manufacturer label on the side of the seat and use it to the maximum allowable weight and height for that seat."

According to the NHTSA, motor vehicle crashes are the leading cause of death for children ages 1- to 12-years-old in the United States. CDOT's crash data from 2006-2010 shows that 64 child passengers, ages 0-12 died in traffic crashes. Over half (55 percent) were not using a child safety seat or seat belt, or they were using one improperly.

The following are recommendations from NHTSA and the American Academy of Pediatrics:

Rear-Facing Seat

For the best possible protection, children under age 2 should stay in a rear-facing seat as long as possible. There are different types of rear-facing car seats: infant-only seats can only be used rear-facing. Convertible and 3-in-1 car seats typically have higher height and weight limits for the rear-facing position, allowing you to keep your child rear-facing for a longer period of time.

Forward-Facing Seat

Your child should remain in a rear-facing car seat until the child reaches the top height or weight limit allowed by your car seat's manufacturer. This may result in many children riding rear-facing to age 2 or older. Once your child outgrows the rear-facing car seat, your child can begin traveling in a forward-facing car seat with a harness.

Booster Seat

Keep your child in a forward-facing car seat with a harness until the child reaches the top height or weight limit allowed by your car seat's manufacturer. Once your child outgrows the forward-facing car seat with a harness, it's time to travel in a booster seat, but still in the back seat.

Adult Seat Belt

Keep your child in a booster seat until the child is big enough to fit in a seat belt properly. For a seat belt to fit properly the lap belt must lie snugly across the upper thighs, not the stomach. The shoulder belt should lie snug across the shoulder and chest and not cross the neck or face.

Remember:

- Select a car seat based on your child's age and size, choose a seat that fits in your vehicle, and use it on every trip, every time.
- Always refer to your specific car seat manufacturer's instructions; read the vehicle owner's manual on how to install the car seat using the seat belt or LATCH system; and check height and weight limits.
- To maximize safety, keep your child in the car seat for as long as possible, as long as the child fits within the manufacturer's height and weight requirements.
- Keep your child in the back seat at least through age 12.

For maximum safety, a parent or caregiver should have the car seat installation inspected by a certified Child Passenger Safety Technician to ensure their children are in the right seats for their age and size. Parents can find a car seat fit station closest to them by visiting www.carseatscolorado.com or calling 303-239-4500.

Did You Know?

by Dolores A. Ebner, Ken-Caryl Ranch Historical Society

In 1930, John C. Shaffer put up Ken-Caryl Ranch as collateral when he purchased some buildings in Denver. He borrowed from the three "Bs" — Bonfils, Bennett and Boettcher. They required him to insure the mortgage with the National Surety Company. By 1933, finances forced Shaffer to forfeit the Ranch, and he moved back to Evanston, Ill. Virgie had died the preceding year and Kent died in 1925. He deeded his home, worth $150,000 to Northwestern University with the understanding that he could live out his days there.

He worked daily with his secretary except for wintering at his winter home in Santa Barbara, California. He died mentally alert after a bout with pneumonia on Oct. 5, 1943, which was preceded by an appendectomy. He left his grandchildren 12,877 shares of preferred stock in the Maryland Securities Corporation, which included the Indianapolis Star and the Muncie Star newspapers. Carroll, his only living son, was left 2,000 shares of the same preferred stock.

He was a man of conscience and spent the majority of his life trying to make the world a better place. His many contributions to society are a tribute to his high moral values.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

The purpose of this email is to convey to you my opposition to the plan to expand the water storage at Chatfield Reservoir.

I have lived in the Cimarron neighborhood for 27 years. I go to Chatfield State Park for recreation. I love to hike the trails with my favorites being the cottonwood forest along the S. Platte River to the south of the park bridge. I sometimes fish for rainbow and brown trout in the river along this trail. I see deer, hawks, kingfishers, many types of water birds, heron and occasional bald eagles; as well as many migrating bird species. I can see the work of beavers about a mile down the trail as I rest sitting on trees they have cut down. I've seen the prints of mountain lion here and have seen what was left of their deer kills. I've heard from Rangers and fellow hikers of black bear in this area. I also enjoy other trails on the south side.

In summer, I enjoy taking my 2- and 5-year-old granddaughters to the Chatfield swim beach. Sitting on a beach chair watching them build in the sand or enjoy the clear, cool water is a joy, but this joy is greatly enhanced by the beautiful views. My favorite birds are the majestic white pelicans, which seem to base their colony in the shallows on the south side of the lake. I have taught my children to fish in the two big ponds south of the big lake. I live close enough to Chatfield to occasionally enjoy, from my back deck, the serene beauty of the colorful hot air balloons as they ascend from their base in Chatfield.

I tell you all of the above because the Report Document lays out a plan to flood everything mentioned above! It also calls for large annual water level fluctuations, which lead to smells and ugliness. In addition, there is nothing detailed as to what it will be replaced with except oblivion and ugliness.

Thank you for considering my input.

Jack C. Warner, Cimarron

Editor's Note: For more information about the Chatfield Reservoir Project, see www.chatfieldstudy.org.

Dear Editor:

To the speeders on South Valley Parkway: The beautiful little spotted fawn you hit Monday, Aug. 6 was euthanized in my yard after a day and night of agony for the fawn and its mother (and those of us who saw it). Slow down! Pay attention!

Facebook Surprise

Submitted by David LeSueur, Legacy

Those of us with multiple sclerosis sometimes feel isolated when our symptoms prevent us from doing things with our friends and family. To help remedy this, my neurologist encouraged me to use social media (like Facebook) to keep in touch. I never took his advice because Facebook seems more like "Anti-Social Media" than "Social Media." After all, you are communicating without having to actually use any spoken words.

But everything changed recently when I received an email from my friend Curtis inviting me to be his friend on Facebook. At first, I was suspicious. You see, we are both closer to the Social Security retirement age than we are to the legal drinking age. And though we are both computer and Internet savvy, you wouldn't normally associate us with something like Facebook. I wondered if this email was really from him. I have watched enough television news to know that you have to be wary of sexual predators. What if the email was from a 12-year-old girl pretending to be Curtis? Or what if the email was from a guy in Nigeria who wanted to steal my identity? Maybe if I clicked on the link he would find out my credit card numbers and steal my entire 401(k) account.

I decided to call Curtis, just to be safe. He confirmed to me that he had just joined Facebook and had invited me to be his friend, though he wasn't sure yet what that meant. I opened his email and clicked on the link. A mere 2-1/2 hours later I finished signing up as his friend. That was three weeks ago. We haven't spoken since. I am not sure what is supposed to happen next. Will he send me a message to go look at his Facebook page? Or am I supposed to go there periodically to see if he has a message for me?

I was going to call him about something, but I was afraid he might be mad at me for not ever checking Facebook. Then I had a brilliant idea. I would send him a text message! That way I could communicate with him without risking actually talking to him. I could just pretend he wasn't angry with me. I decided to tell him in my text that my Internet wasn't working in case he was wondering why I hadn't been to his Facebook page.

Now I just needed to learn how to send a text message. A few days ago I asked my niece Marissa to teach me. She can text 416 words per minute and has calluses on her thumbs. Yesterday I decided to send her a text message, but I couldn't find my cell phone. I don't use it much. Last month my usage was three minutes. I only received two phone calls, both of them wrong numbers. I tried calling my cell phone, hoping I would hear it ring, but of course its battery was dead. Eventually, I found it.

It took me only 20 minutes to type the following message: HI MARISSA how are lol U unCle daVID. I sent the text, then called Marissa to see if she had received it. She is 15, so naturally she had her cell phone with her and turned on. Yes, she said, she got my message. I quickly ended the phone call because it felt like cheating to actually talk out loud. I didn't even find out how she was LOL. I started to compose my message to Curtis when I realized I didn't have his cell phone number!

Maybe I could write him a letter instead. Unfortunately, we don't have stationery, and writing on computer paper seemed impersonal. I checked in our folder where we keep greeting cards for a variety of occasions. I found two birthday cards, three thank you notes and an invitation to a New Year's Eve party. None of them seemed appropriate. We also had some blank cards, but they all had girly flowers on the front. So I won't be sending him anything in the mail. I am stumped as to my next step. Curtis, if you are reading this and aren't too mad at me, instead of being friends on Facebook, can we be friends in real life?
