The hailstorm on Thursday, Aug 22 caused widespread damage all around Ken-Caryl Ranch. The hail and rain came down so fast that the storm drain in the Ranch House parking lot became clogged with hail and leaves. Ken-Caryl Ranch Metropolitan District Parks employee D.G. Hinckley is shown here in the middle of the parking lot trying to clear the drain. A big thank you goes out to all of the Parks employees for helping with the cleanup efforts the day after the storm.

Be Considerate Of Neighbors When Putting On New Roofs

With the recent hailstorm, a large number of residents will be getting new roofs over the next few months. We want to remind everyone about the Jefferson County Noise Abatement Policy: Construction projects in residential zones shall be subject to the following permissible noise levels for the period within which construction is to be completed pursuant to any applicable construction permit issued by proper authority, or if no time limitation is imposed, then for a reasonable period of time for completion of project. There is a limit of 80 decibels for construction noise in a residential area between the hours of 7 a.m. until 7 p.m.

Most importantly, just be considerate of your neighbors. If you would like to report noise violations, please call the Jefferson County Sheriff's non-emergency line at 303-277-0211.

Roofing Submittal Information

Many residents suffered damage to their homes due to the recent hailstorm. Please remember that residents must submit a Roof Replacement Form to the Master Association prior to having any work done. Please review the Ken-Caryl Ranch Master Association Roofing Guidelines before you submit for a new roof. If you live in the North Ranch, Manor Ridge or the Enclave, you have different roofing guidelines and submittal forms and will need to get approval from your Subassociation, not the Master Association.

The Roof Replacement Form and the Roofing Guidelines for the Master Association are all available at www.ken-carylranh.org under Residents then Property Improvements. The Roofing Guidelines are also printed on Page 6 of this paper. If you are looking to hire a roofing contractor, you can check out our Contractor Reference Database under the Residents tab on the website, or hard copies of the references are available for review at the Ranch House Monday through Friday from 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. For valuable information about hiring a roofing contractor, please see the Better Business Bureau article on Page 6.

Reminder Calls For Trash Service Delays

Did you receive a call the week of Labor Day reminding you that trash service was delayed a day? If not, then you're probably not signed up for the Waste Connections Call Fire Service.

Waste Connections, the trash and recycling services provider for Ken-Caryl Ranch, offers an auto-dial service called Call Fire to notify customers of any changes in trash pickup days. If you are interested in being notified through this service, you can sign up online by visiting www.wcdenver.com. Once you are at www.wcdenver.com, please click on the Contact tab. Complete the required information, click on Residential Trash Service, then in the comment section at the bottom of the page explain that you are a Ken-Caryl resident seeking to sign up for the Call Fire service.

Metropolitan District Seeks Board Member

An opening on the Board of Directors of the Ken-Caryl Ranch Metropolitan District will occur as a result of the upcoming resignation of Director Dennis Sykes, who is moving from Ken-Caryl Ranch. Director Sykes has served on the District Board since his election in May of 2010. During his tenure on the Board, Director Sykes has assisted the Board greatly with his strong understanding of governmental financial matters and procedures.

Under Colorado Special District law, the remaining members of the District Board will appoint an individual to serve Director Sykes' remaining term of office, which ends in May of 2014. In order to serve on the Board of Directors, an individual must either own or rent property located within the District and be a registered voter in the State of Colorado.

Currently, the District Board of Directors holds a business meeting once a month on the fourth Tuesday evening, and participates in a Joint Study Session with the Master Association Board of Directors on the first Tuesday evening of the month.

Individuals interested in serving on the Board of Directors until May of 2014 are invited to submit a letter of interest and qualifications. Letters of interest must be submitted by Friday, Sept. 20 and may be mailed, hand delivered or emailed to District Manager Darrell Windes at Ken-Caryl Ranch Metropolitan District, 7676 S. Continental Divide Road, Littleton, CO 80127; darrellw@kcranch.org. Please direct any questions to District Manager Darrell Windes at 303-979-1876, ext. 114, darrellw@kcranch.org.

Flu Shot Clinics

The Colorado Flu Shot Company will be providing family flu immunization clinics at the Community Center every Sunday from Sept. 22 through Nov. 17 from 1 to 4 p.m. Flu shots and the intranasal flu vaccine will be offered. For details about the clinics, see Page 17.

Deer Creek Golf Course Reorganization Plans

The ownership of the Deer Creek Golf Course has filed a voluntary petition for reorganization pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code and has filed a Disclosure Statement calling for the property to be sold to a third party. The sale is contingent upon Jefferson County approving a final plat for the golf course property to allow for the development of 200 single family lots where the eastern nine holes are currently located.

The Ken-Caryl Ranch Master Association and Metropolitan District Boards have submitted the following statement to the bankruptcy court: "Open Space property is an important element of the Ken-Caryl community and one that is highly valued. We are writing to express our concerns about the ramifications of such a radical rezoning and our support for the property to remain as a golf course or another use consistent with the current zoning."

Please submit any comments you might have to the Boards in writing by sending them to Chris Pacetti at chrisp@kcranch.org or mailing them to Chris' attention at the Ranch House: 7676 S. Continental Divide Road, Littleton, CO 80127.

Manager's Column

by KCRMD District Manager Darrell Windes

Now that September is here, the summer on Ken-Caryl Ranch is beginning to wind down. The last of the three outdoor pools on Ken-Caryl Ranch closed for the season with the final day of operations for the Community Center Pool on Monday, Sept. 2. Both the Ranch House and Bradford Pools had closed in August.

In the last of the special events for the summer, the 2013 Doggie Dip Day was held on Aug. 24 at the Ranch House Pool and raised nearly $150 in donations from the event, which was donated to the Foothills Animal Shelter. The Metropolitan District staff will now begin preparing the pools and outdoor recreational facilities for the upcoming fall and winter. The Parks Department, with the fall approaching, will continue to mow and irrigate the parks and greenbelts throughout the remainder of the growing season.

The staff and Board are in the process of developing a draft 2014 budget for the Metropolitan District. As is usually the case, the 2014 draft budget includes options for addressing the most recent revenue shortfalls for the District. Since 2010, the Metropolitan District has lost nearly 20 percent of its assessed property valuation, which equates to a loss of more than $450,000 in property tax revenues annually. This drop in assessed valuation can be attributed to the reduced property values resulting from the recent recession the United States is just now emerging from.

With property values and home prices throughout Colorado once again on the increase, the future budgets for the Metropolitan District look encouraging. However, it will take several years for the Metropolitan District to realize the improved property values in the form of revenues. Of course, at the same time the economy is improving and property values are on the upswing, the annual operating costs for the Metropolitan District continue to increase. In the meantime, the Board will need to find a way to close the budget shortfalls for the 2014 budget, which begins on Jan. 1, 2014.

At its Aug. 27 Board meeting, the Board of Directors appointed Dave Banning to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Ryan Rhinehart from the Board in June. Dave will serve on the Board until May of 2014 at which time the Metropolitan District will conduct its regular biennial Board of Director election. There will be three positions on the five-member Board of Directors up for election in the May 2014 election. Dave previously served on the Metropolitan District Board from 2005 to 2010.

Roofing Rodeo

by KCRMA Community Standards Administrator Julie Kearful

Surprise! Surprise! It is all about roofing these days. One resident asked if I was having fun at the "Roofing Rodeo." The hail storm on Aug. 22 caused extensive damage to hundreds of roofs on Ken-Caryl Ranch.

For those of you who are needing to replace your damaged roof, please be aware that you will need to submit your choice of product and color for architectural review prior to beginning the work. Choose one of the approvable products, and then the process requires completing and returning a Roof Replacement Form, which you can email, fax, mail or drop off at the Ranch House. After review by the Architectural Consultant, you will receive a letter reflecting the approval or denial of your submittal. If you have any questions at all, please don't hesitate to contact me. I will make it all as easy as possible.

Please keep in mind that rules and regulations are dynamic in nature...new issues surface, new regulations are added, inappropriate ones are deleted and others simply are amended or updated. Ken-Caryl Ranch documents are available at the Ranch House and on our website at www.ken-carylranh.org so try to make certain you, too, are up-to-date. Also, don't hesitate to call me at 303-979-1876, ext. 119, or email juliek@kcranch.org should you have any covenant or architectural questions or comments. Help will be gladly offered.

Ranger Field Notes

Fall Weed Management

by Open Space Ranger Gary Norton

As the weather begins to turn cooler, the Rangers are planning their fall weed management activities. The two most important seasons are the spring when plants begin their growth cycles and the fall when they are shutting down and storing reserves for the winter.

Fall weed spraying can be very effective since plants can transport herbicides to their roots. Species targeted in the fall are deeply rooted perennials like Canada thistle, which requires several management strategies in order to achieve control. Herbicides like Plateau are applied in fall to prevent weedy annual grasses like cheatgrass from propagating throughout the fall and winter. The Rangers have been busy this summer preparing spray areas for fall management.

Summer mowing is part of the Rangers' attempt to provide an integrated management approach to weed management. Noxious weeds have been known to develop a resistance to herbicides, and hardy perennial weeds easily survive "top kill" application due to their significant stores of energy below ground. Mowing reduces seed production and stimulates weeds like Canada thistle to "flush out." This method encourages the plants to use more energy in creating more green foliage and also provides greater surface area for herbicide application. The mowed areas are less likely to survive the winter due to less stored energy, and the herbicide applied to the plant surface is quickly transported to the roots where it can do more damage to the plant.

Another part of the fall battle on weeds is cheatgrass control. Cheatgrass is an annual that has the ability to propagate throughout the fall and winter. Plateau is a herbicide that is used because of the soil residual that prevents cheatgrass from emerging. These treatments have proven very successful over the past two years.

The Ranger staff has been prioritizing fall spraying areas throughout the summer based on areas that were mowed, resident input and critical habitat areas. A target weed species list is generated by the Colorado Department of Agriculture, which lists the most noxious weeds in the state, and under state mandate requires property owners to control these weeds. The amount of control is dependent on each species, with the goal of a reduction in numbers over time.

The Ranger staff encourages residents near Open Space to monitor and manage weeds on their own properties and in the Open Space by their homes. Residents are allowed to mow a four-foot buffer in Open Space, which can help in weed control. A resident can also use a broadleaf specific herbicide like Weed Be Gone, but residents should never use herbicides like Round-Up because it kills all plants in the management area.

Before treating weeds in Open Space, the Ranger staff asks that you contact our office and schedule a field visit so that we can evaluate the weed problem and make recommendations. Dumping materials like grass clippings in the Open Space is prohibited and can suppress desirable species and encourage weed growth. If you have any questions on fall weed management, please contact Gary Norton at 303-904-0249.

Weed mitigation in the Ken-Caryl Ranch Open Space is a high-priority for the Rangers.

Open Space ID Bracelets

Many trails on Ken-Caryl Ranch are private, and only residents and their accompanied guests are allowed to use these trails. To be easily identified as a resident, you can wear an Open Space ID Bracelet. To obtain your own blue ID bracelet, go to the Ranch House Recreation Office or the Community Center. You will need to complete a registration form and provide proof of residency. There is no cost.

Ken-Caryl Ranch Roofing Guidelines

Excludes The North Ranch, Manor Ridge And The Enclave

Roofing material throughout Ken-Caryl Ranch varies from neighborhood to neighborhood. Replacement of a roof requires a Homeowner submittal using a Roof Replacement Form and Architectural Committee approval. The homeowner may be required to submit a sample for review. Submittals need to adhere to the criteria listed below, which allows a homeowner to select new roofing material equal to the existing roof, or to upgrade to another approved roofing material.

Standard Composition Roofing: (This roofing may ONLY be installed in Saddlewood, The Territory, The Village, and those homes in Cimarron whose original roofs were not shake shingle.)

This conventional asphalt or fiberglass roofing material is currently in use in these neighborhoods.

Three patterns that have been approved for these homes are Three Tab, T-Lock and a Laminated 2-ply (5 tab) shingle. Any upgraded product, listed below, may also be used.

The final decision for permitting changes to existing roof materials, style and color will be made by the Architectural Committee on an individual basis, following the standard procedure for submittal and review.

BBB Warns Of Untrustworthy Roofers After Hail Storms

Source: Better Business Bureau of Denver/Boulder, <http://denver.bbb.org>.

The Better Business Bureau of Denver/Boulder warns homeowners of unscrupulous contractors and encourages hiring trusted companies. The BBB closed more than 100 complaints against roofers so far in 2013 and reports that roofers have been the most-asked about industry all summer with more than 21,000 BBB business reviews provided.

Some of the most serious complaints filed against roofers this year alleged incomplete work after several thousand dollars paid up front. Other complaints alleged repair issues and warranties not honored.

"The BBB provides a list of many reputable BBB Accredited roofers to hire if you have damage so don't fall for a high-pressure sales pitch from a storm-chaser knocking on doors," said Su Hawk, BBB president and CEO.

Anyone who suffered damage from recent hail is advised of the following information from the BBB:

- Check with the BBB. Get three estimates before making a decision and don't be pushed into signing a contract right away. Contact the BBB and use our free Request-A-Quote service to get bids from BBB Accredited roofers at denver.bbb.org.
- Be wise when making deposits. DO NOT pay for the entire job or make a large down payment up front and do not sign your insurance check over to the roofer. This can make it very difficult to get your money back should the company not show up or do a satisfactory job. Only make a direct, portioned down payment to a reputable, established company that has provided a clear work schedule to you in writing. Schedule payments according to the work schedule.

- Know your rights. According to the State of Colorado (senate bill 12-038), a roofer cannot cash any payment until it has delivered materials to the home or has completed the majority of the work. Roofers must provide the homeowner with a detailed, written contract that includes the company's contact information, insurance, scope of work, dates of service and costs. Also, homeowners have the right to cancel their contract within three business days, (this includes Saturdays).
- Deal with your insurance company directly. Avoid letting a roofer file a claim on your behalf. This can cause problems in your relationship with your insurance company and can possibly lead to insurance fraud.
- Read carefully anything you sign. Anything you sign — no matter what you are told — can be considered a binding contract.
- Beware of companies that are not local. Discuss warranties and guarantees offered by out-of-state companies. Question how the services will be honored.
- Know who is responsible. Find out if the company uses their own workers or if they hire individual, third-party subcontractors. It is very important to know exactly who will be working on your roof and who is responsible if something goes wrong.
- Verify applicable permits with your city and county. Make sure the permit is posted before the work begins.

KC Tour Of Homes Partners With The Action Center

An Interview With The Action Center's Executive Director, Mag Strittmatter

Submitted by Gina Quirk, Ken-Caryl Ranch Foundation

The Ken-Caryl Tour of Homes continues the tradition of partnering with the Action Center and anticipates an even bigger turnout than our 2011 event! We raised and donated more than $5,000 that year and helped the wider Jeffco community by supporting the Action Center's mission of "providing an immediate response to basic human needs and promoting pathways to self-sufficiency." How is this mission statement transformed into action? What kind of help can clients who seek out assistance expect?

I recently had the pleasure of interviewing Mag Strittmatter, the Executive Director of the Action Center, to ask these questions and learn more about some of the Center's programs. Mag joined the Action Center in 2002 as the Director of Development and Communication and was selected as Executive Director in 2006. She has more than 30 years of experience in the nonprofit sector, including extensive service in higher education.

However, Mag knew that she had found her life's calling when she joined the Action Center. As Mag explained, "The Action Center's mission statement resonated with my soul. I knew I was supposed to be here. Every day, we are helping an individual or family, in some significant way, to regain their sense of self."

Mag understands all too well how unexpected life events can throw families into a crisis. As a young child, her own father suffered a brain aneurism, leaving him permanently disabled. "We lived in a small town in Pennsylvania, and my mother had six children in stair-step fashion to support. I wish my mother had a place to go to for help, like the Action Center."

While meeting clients' needs for food, clothing and shelter provides immediate relief, Mag also believes that prevention is a key component in keeping temporary problems or moments of crisis from snowballing into unmanageable, long-term issues. The Action Center provides three seasonal prevention programs when financial strain tends to hit families hardest... Back-to-School, Thanksgiving and Christmas.

As Mag said, "We want to keep people in their homes. When a struggling family has to buy school supplies for their children, they may feel the need to dip into their rent or utility money. A $300 temporary problem can then become a much bigger problem." Recently, staff and volunteers transformed Wheatridge Middle School into a back-to-school distribution hub, supplying more than 5,200 kids with much needed supplies.

The Center will be focusing their attention on reaching as many Jeffco individuals and families in need this upcoming Thanksgiving and the holiday season. Last year, Creighton Middle School was the site for distributing Thanksgiving boxes to more than 4,000 families, and a local church hosted the Action Center's Santa Shop where parents selected gifts for their children. By partnering with the Action Center, the Ken-Caryl community supports these much-needed prevention programs.

The Ken-Caryl Tour of Homes event is just one example of how the Action Center partners with outside businesses, agencies, nonprofits and individuals. A diverse funding pie is hugely important to the longevity and sustainability of the Center's outreach programs. Mag noted that 40 percent of funding comes from individual donations. This is a testament to the vision, passion and leadership that Mag brings to the Center and her ability to reach a wide audience of potential donors.

The Action Center staff hosts four to five tours each month whereby individuals or groups can get a firsthand look at how the Center reaches out to those in need. Anyone interested in participating in a tour can contact the Action Center directly: www.theactioncenterco.org or 303-237-7704 or please contact Ken-Caryl Home Tour Committee member Gina Quirk (ginamquirk@gmail.com) if you would like to visit after the Home Tour with other members of the Ken-Caryl community.

Together, we can make this event a huge success and support Mag's goal of "providing an immediate response to basic human needs and promoting pathways to self-sufficiency" through her leadership as Executive Director of the Action Center.

Intermountain Rural Electric Association

Editor's Note: Residents in the Valley and North Ranch get electric service from the Intermountain Rural Electric Association (IREA). The article below is intended to provide IREA customers with a general overview of what IREA is and the benefits it offers to its customers. Source: www.intermountain-rea.com.

What Is IREA?

Intermountain Rural Electric Association (IREA) is a nonprofit electric distribution cooperative, one of more than 900 established in the 1930s to bring electricity to parts of the country not served by municipal or investor-owned utilities. IREA is organized as a corporation under Colorado law, but unlike many corporations, the Association's customers own IREA and elect the board of directors. The board makes decisions regarding the general policies of IREA and directs the General Manager to implement those policies.

IREA today has more than 140,000 customers within a service territory covering approximately 5,000 square miles in central Colorado. Residents in the Valley and North Ranch are customers of IREA. The Association is by far the largest of Colorado's 23 electric distribution cooperatives. The Association purchases power wholesale from the Western Area Power Administration and Public Service Company of Colorado, Xcel Energy. IREA also invested in Comanche 3, a supercritical pulverized coal plant built and operated by Xcel Energy.

Capital Credits

Since IREA is a consumer-member owned cooperative, its margins, or profits, are ultimately returned back to the member-owners in the form of capital credits. These capital credits are paid to members when IREA's Board of Directors deems that the financial condition of the cooperative will not be impaired and that the payment is not in conflict with any limitations imposed by the provisions by any mortgage or deed of trust given or assumed by IREA.

Patronage capital is accrued to individual member accounts at the end of every year that IREA operates with a margin. Every customer of IREA gets an annual statement that shows your total patronage credit. Patronage is retired at death. The surviving spouse can receive a check for the balance. In the interim period between the accrual of such capital credits and their payment to the member, this member equity is retained by IREA for working capital, storm damage reserves and contingencies. IREA returns capital credits on a percentage basis to all eligible members.

Such return of capital credits is normally made in the spring of each year. IREA attempts to return capital credits to all members who have accrued such patronage capital in past years. It is important, therefore, that consumers keep IREA informed of their current address even after they are no longer a member. When you move, inform IREA of your new address because you could possibly receive a dividend or capital credits several years after you leave Ken-Caryl Ranch.

Education Grants

In July of each year, IREA awards 21 grants (three per director district) of $1,000 each. The grant winners are chosen by a lottery-type drawing as there are no scholastic requirements. The winners must be members, or children of members, of IREA. The $1,000 grant must be used for tuition or books for higher education. Entry forms are due in June each year.

Jordan Alexander's Preschool Academy

"We Change The World One Child At A Time."

Discover the best of both worlds — a play-based preschool program alongside structured learning — at Jordan Alexander's Preschool Academy!

JAPA teachers combine the center's thematic curriculum with academic concepts in conjunction with play-based methods to support each child's total development. The Colorado Department of Education's Building Blocks curriculum model serves as our starting point: teachers plan and implement age-specific learning domains infusing each activity with classroom-specific creativity. This innovative curriculum approach is successful in regard to addressing and mediating the division that exists between academic and play-based schools of thoughts in an early childhood educational setting, proving that there is a happy medium: Jordan Alexander's Preschool Academy.

Play is our brain's favorite way of learning.

—Dr. Diane Ackerman

These JAPA kids are learning:

- Weights, sizes, shapes, colors (science and mathematics concepts)
- Socialization and cooperation
- Problem solving skills
- Large and small motor skills and self control
- Grouping, matching, and classifying objects
- Coordination between eyes and hands
- Spatial relationships
- To incorporate prior knowledge and experience during play

Providing quality care for children ages six weeks through six years for over 15 years!
 Now enrolling for fall.

Patient Testimonial

I've had headaches for most of my adult life. Migraines would knock me out 6-10 times a year. I would have regular headaches 3-5 times a week. The doctor prescribed medicine for my migraines, and I would take Tylenol or Advil for my weekly headaches. This has been going on for over twelve years. Then recently, a friend recommended I go see Dr. Jeremy.

I got adjusted twice last week and once this week. I have not had a headache since my first adjustment. In fact I can't remember ever going this long without a headache or taking any drugs. Thanks, Dr. J!

Sincerely,
Karen S.

Dance Classes

Denver Region Dance Academy

At Denver Region Dance Academy our emphasis is on confidence. We provide four building blocks for a confident dancer: dance skills, musicality, appropriate peer/teacher relations and a studio environment for performances. Each class is designed to incorporate these four aspects for building confidence in your child. Denver Regional Dance Academy is a non-competitive studio believing that performances in front of friendly supportive audiences build self-esteem.

CLASS DESCRIPTIONS

Ballet & Tap I • Beginning

This class is for 3- to 5-year-old beginning ballerinas. Does your little girl tip-toe across the floor, love princess everything and always want to wear pink and purple? Then this class is for her! Dancers learn classical ballet skills while dancing to their favorite princess music. Together with the tap skills they learn, dancers will put the moves into routines to perform them for family and friends.

Ballet & Tap II • Intermediate

This class is for 5- to 7-year-old girls who may or may not have been in ballet/tap before. We keep classes small in size to make very individualized instruction so all skill levels are addressed. If your ballerina still loves to dance and perform to her favorite music, let her continue her dance education in this positive, non-competitive environment.

Hip-Hop • Beginning

Come join this fun, high-energy beginning dance class. Learn dance moves and routines to Taylor Swift, Stereo Hearts and TV shows like "Shake It Up," "Glee" and more. Perform for your family and friends and make it a dance party every week!

Special Program

Fall Family Flu Shot Clinic

The Colorado Flu Shot Company will be providing family flu immunization clinics. The flu vaccinations are now recommended by the Center for Disease Control and the American Academy of Pediatrics for anyone 6 months of age and older who would like to increase their chances of a Flu free Fall/Winter season.

The CDC in 2006 has changed the age range of high-risk children to include all children 5 years and under, and their caregivers. This is because younger children are most at risk for secondary infections (pneumonia, bronchitis, ear infections), and complications from the virus result in more childhood hospitalizations than any other vaccine-preventable disease. Others at higher risk include: anyone with asthma, heart disease, kidney disease, nursing or pregnant mothers, and cancer patients. School-age children/students are also the most common source of spreading the virus.

COST:
Intra-nasal Flu Vaccine $31
(for ages 2 to 49 years without chronic diseases)

Flu shot $31
(for ages 6 months to adult)
Trivalent/Quadrivalent

Pneumonia $75
Tetanus/Diphtheria/Pertussis $55

Travel vaccinations by appointment.
Dates: Sunday, Sept. 22, 29, Sunday, Oct. 6, 13, 20, 27, Sunday, Nov. 3, 10, 17.

Time: 1 to 4 p.m.
Location: Community Center
Cash or checks payable to the Colorado Flu Shot Company accepted; receipts available. Parental consent is required for children under 18 years of age and consent forms are available by fax. Vaccinations will be provided by a Pediatric RN.

The Colorado Flu Shot Company also carries Pneumonia, Tetanus/Pertussis, travel vaccinations, along with Hepatitis A & B, and the new vaccines against Shingles, Meningitis and HPV (Cervical Cancer). An appointment is not needed for a flu shot. If you would like to get one of the additional vaccines, please call the Colorado Flu Shot Company at 303-932-8989 or fax 303-932-0004.

Geology Of Ken-Caryl Ranch
by Environmental Education Specialist Ernie Stone

There are many amazing rock formations in the Valley of Ken-Caryl Ranch. If you would like to learn more about the rock formations of Ken-Caryl Valley join a geologist for the Geology of Ken-Caryl Ranch program on Saturday, Sept. 14 from 9 a.m. to noon at the Dakota Lodge. You can sign up for Course #26970 at www.ken-carylranh.org or by calling 303-979-4070. Here's some information about the various rock formations in the Valley.

Fountain Formation

The Fountain Formation is better known as the Red Rocks. This formation was made by the erosion of the crystalline rocks of the ancestral Rocky Mountains. It's made up of sandstones, conglomerates, mudstones and shales deposited in broad alluvial fans and braided streams that ran along the mountain front in an arid environment between 320 and 280 million years ago.

Lyons Formation

The Lyons Formation is better known as the Little Hogback. This formation represents the end to the uplift of the ancestral Rocky Mountains. It's made of fine-grained sandstone with a few layers of pebble conglomerate. The lower part of the formation is made of stream deposits, and the upper part is made of fine windblown dune deposits laid down during the Permian Period between 280 to 240 million years ago.

Lykins Formation

The Lykins Formation is hiding between the Lyons and Dakota Hogbacks. This formation was deposited in low-lying, flat flood plains near the shoreline of an ancient inland ocean. It's made up of mostly mudstone, but there are also two beds of limestone found within the formation. This formation crosses a major timeline from the Permian period to the Triassic period about 240 to 210 million years ago. During this time period the first

This red rock formation is located in Bradford Park in the North Ranch. dinosaurs appeared.

Morrison Formation

The Morrison Formation is found between the Hogbacks and is holding them up. This formation is best known for its dinosaur fossils. The Morrison Formation is the true Jurassic Park dating back to 210 and 150 million years ago. It was deposited on a coastal plain with mudflats, freshwater lanes and river bottoms in a humid environment. It's made up of mostly shales and sandstone.

Dakota Formation

The Dakota Formation is also known as the Crown Hogback of the Ranch. It was deposited in both onshore and a marginal marine environment of mudflats, rivers and deltas. It's made up of sandstone and shale dating back to about 150 million years ago. As you head east, this formation contains large oil deposits.

Town Hall Meetings On Affordable Care Act

Submitted by

Congresswoman Diana DeGette

On Oct. 1, the health insurance marketplaces for the Affordable Care Act (ACA) will go into effect, helping to bring access to quality, affordable health care for Americans. Here in Colorado, our state's new online health marketplace, Connect for Health Colorado, will enable individuals and small businesses to shop for, compare and purchase health insurance that meets their needs. As we approach that rollout, I, Congresswoman Diana DeGette, look forward to working with the people of the 1st Congressional District to help them take advantage of the benefits in the ACA.

I believe it is critically important that the public has all the resources they need in order to learn about the options available to them and that they have the ability to get their questions answered. Therefore I am hosting a series of town halls throughout Denver to discuss how to make it work for individuals, families, or businesses, and to provide important updates. I have also asked several organizations to participate in order to provide critical information. Panelists will include representatives from Connect for Health Colorado, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, and the Small Business Majority.

In addition, Health Guides will be available after each panel to answer questions and walk attendees through the process of signing up for an insurance plan through the Marketplace. While the public will not be able to sign up for an insurance plan at these town halls meetings, they will have the opportunity to have all their questions answered in preparation for doing so.

Please join me at one of the town hall meetings listed below to learn more about the Affordable Care Act, the new health insurance marketplaces, and how they can benefit from the new law to access coverage. The four town halls will be as follows:

Saturday, Sept. 21, 10 a.m.
McAuliffe International School
3480 Syracuse Street
Denver, CO 80238

Thursday, Sept. 26, 12 p.m.
McNichols Civic Center Building
144 West Colfax Avenue
Denver, CO 80203

Note: This will have a Small Business Focus
Thursday, Sept. 26, 6 p.m.
Barnum Recreation Center
360 Hooker Street
Denver, CO 80219

Note: Spanish Translation offered here

Space is limited so we ask that attendees RSVP by emailing DeGette.RSVP@mail.house.gov or calling 303-844-4988. When you RSVP please specify what event you will be attending. Please note seating will be limited and available on first come, first served basis.

Ken-Caryl Resident Lisa Downing To Perform At Lone Tree Arts Center

Internationally-acclaimed concert pianist, composer and recording artist Lisa Downing will perform locally at the Lone Tree Arts Center in "The Global Piano Experience" — a Contemporary Solo Piano Concert featuring Lisa Downing, Bob Baker and Julio Mazziotti, on Wednesday, Sept. 25 at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $20 online at www.VisionQuestMusic.com or call 720-509-1010 for more information.

Ken-Caryl Ranch resident Lisa Downing will perform at the Lone Tree Arts Center on Sept. 25 at 7:30 p.m.

A Ken-Caryl Ranch Cimarron resident for 15 years, Lisa Downing is a multiple award-winning international concert artist and a compelling storyteller describing the exceptional neo-classical inspiration of her creative neo-classical solo piano compositions. Lisa captivates her audiences with her personality and her beautifully intense music. The great-granddaughter of an African-American slave, Lisa's ancestry is also part European and includes Native-American Choctaw/Chicasaw tribes of the southern United States. Lisa's polyethnic background provides her with a truly unique perspective regarding culture as well as her own brand of personal spirituality. Lisa's descriptions of her compositions create parables that reach into the collective hopes and fears of human experience — revealing the true unity we all share.

Lisa performs around the world with musicians such as Liz Story, David Lanz, Suzanne Ciani and Peter Kater. Lisa's concert tours will take her to Spain, Paris and Argentina later this fall.

Lisa has recorded three albums in addition to her recent inclusion on the prestigious "Best of Reviews New Age" compilation CD. All of her recordings can be sampled and purchased on her website, www.lisadowning.com. Lisa has also recently recorded several tracks for her upcoming fourth album.

In addition to her concert career, Lisa owns Vision Quest Entertainment, a successful talent agency here in Colorado, which has been providing quality live entertainment for corporate and private events since 1982. Lisa also finds time to teach piano privately right here, in her Ken-Caryl home. Her piano studio currently has openings for students of all levels. Visit her website at www.lisadowning.com for more information.

Human Trafficking: Is It Happening Here?

Submitted by Ellen Stiner, Jeffco League of Women Voters

You might be surprised how close to home human trafficking occurs. This illegal practice is highly lucrative and can involve sexual slavery, forced labor and even organ extraction. The Jefferson County League of Women Voters has studied this issue and will discuss its findings at meetings Sept. 24-26.

Learn about human trafficking victims and how they are forced, tricked or coerced into slavery. Find out where this is happening and to what extent. The LWV will explore resources to help victims, current laws and other means of combatting this practice.

The Jeffco LWV meeting in the Chatfield area will be held at 9:15 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 24 at St. Philip Lutheran Church, 7531 S. Kendall Blvd., Littleton 80128. All meetings are open to the public, regardless of party affiliation. Call Betsy at 303-979-0906 for more information.

The League of Women Voters is a nonpartisan political organization. The LWV neither supports nor opposes candidates from any party. The League's mission is to promote informed and active participation in government and to influence public policy through education and advocacy after consideration by its members. Minding Our Business

Plant Nanny

Resident Offers Indoor And Outdoor Plant Services, House And Pet Sitting

by Community Relations Director Victoria DeSair

At a young age, Diane Herrick's mom instilled a lifelong passion for plants, and she's turned that passion into a business. Diane, a Ken-Caryl Ranch resident for 22 years in the Village neighborhood, owns a company called The Plant Nanny, which offers indoor and outdoor plant services, in addition to house and pet sitting.

Diane Herrick owns The Plant Nanny, which offers indoor and outdoor plant services, as well as pet and house sitting. Her son Chad works alongside her and helps with the heavier landscaping tasks and trimming.

The Plant Nanny offers regularly scheduled or as needed indoor and outdoor plant and yard services that include:

- Comprehensive plant care — health evaluation, watering, culling, feeding, transplanting
- Consultation in plant selection and placement — “right plant, right place”
- Planting and follow-up care
- Basic landscaping
- Yard grooming — clear all weeds and overgrowth, trim shrubs and trees, salvage existing plants and move to appropriate place.

“As I worked alongside [my mom] I reveled in the joy and peace found in beautiful, well-kept indoor and outdoor gardens,” Diane said. “This progressed to garden design, grooming and maintenance. While I do not have a degree in landscaping, I have built expertise with a lifetime of experience, CSU Extension programs and other courses. In addition, the lessons I have learned from failures have been major contributors to my successes.”

Along with a passion for plants, Diane said she has lifelong experience and a deep love for animals, which is why she also offers pet and house sitting. Through the years, her pets have included dogs, cats, rabbits, hamsters, fish and a five-foot iguana.

The Plant Nanny is a family business. Diane's son Chad has several years of landscaping experience and works alongside her, with an emphasis on the heavier landscaping tasks and trimming. Her husband Dwight takes care of the business end and also assists with projects as needed.

Diane worked for Children's Hospital Colorado for 25 years before retiring. About one year after retiring, she realized she needed the fulfillment of a meaningful career, which is why she started The Plant Nanny.

“I carefully considered what I am most passionate about along with my desire to enrich people's lives,” Diane said. “Many people want the joy of beautiful plants and gardens but aren't physically able, don't have the time or simply don't have the expertise. In my earlier years, I lost plants simply due to choosing the wrong plant for our climate or planting them in the wrong place. At the same time, I've had first-hand experience with improper care of my pets when away.”

The Plant Nanny provides a personalized niche to meet the needs and budgets of its clients. Diane said that several of her clients have hired her for plant and yard services and then retained her for pet sitting, and vice versa.

“As far as I know, we are unique in offering this scope of services,” said Diane. “Because The Plant Nanny is a small family business, we are able to be receptive to our clients' requests and spend the time necessary to achieve the highest quality outcomes. Many landscaping businesses specialize in major designs and improvements costing thousands of dollars, while yard services tend to focus on lawns, shrubs and basic landscaping. Our focus is to always use methods that promote the health of the plant while maintaining optimal aesthetics. The Plant Nanny provides meticulous yard grooming down to the last blade of grass in the garden, creating a dramatic improvement in the appearance of the yard and home from relatively simple interventions.”

Diane said her favorite thing about her job is witnessing her clients' joy when they see the finished product, particularly when the yard grooming projects are combined with plantings. She loves to interact with her clients to learn their vision for the project and then make that vision a reality.

If you want to contact The Plant Nanny, you can email Diane at pnanny@comcast.net or call 720-277-8037.

Local 7-Year-Old Helps Raise Money To Save Rhinos

A local Ken-Caryl Ranch youth is raising money to help save rhinoceroses from poaching in South Africa. Baden Bolling, 7, is the son of Ken-Caryl Ranch residents Christopher and Katie Bolling of the Wynterbrooke neighborhood.

Baden has raised close to $2,600 (with a goal of $3,000) to fund 15 sturdy bicycles for the field rangers who patrol the area in an effort to help reduce rhinoceros poaching that is becoming a real threat in the area.

"Baden loves all animals but has a great understanding of the rhino crisis so he decided to focus his efforts on that," said his mom, Katie. "I'm really proud of him. He's fundraised through a number initiatives including short movies he produces for people who donate featuring an animal of their choice, lemonade stands and simply by sharing information on the cause with people around him."

Baden has already raised enough money for a few bicycles, and the bikes have been distributed to the field rangers. According to Baden's fundraising page on worldbicyclerelief.org, access to the area is not easy and therefore patrols by foot have proven to be relatively unsuccessful for some of the wildlife. Over the last five years poaching rates have increased dramatically, with the number of animals killed for their horns rising exponentially each year.

South Africa, which is home to 80 percent of the surviving rhinoceros populations in Africa, is at the frontline of the poaching crisis. Fifteen bicycles will assist the anti-rhino poaching efforts for patrol teams in the area, detecting poachers on the international border so that poachers don't enter Kruger National Park. The heavy-duty bikes Baden is donating are equipped for patrolling in the remote bush area.

Baden's next official event is a NuYo Frozen Yogurt fundraiser on the evening of Thursday, Sept. 26. NuYo is located in the Safeway shopping center on Ken-Caryl Ave. If you are interested in learning more about Baden's efforts, visit his fundraising website at <http://action.worldbicyclerelief.org/page/outreach/view/individual/bikes4rhinos>.

School News

A bicycle that was donated through Baden's efforts was presented to North Section Leader Jose Zavale from Antony Alexander of the Peace Parks Foundation. The other bikes will be deployed to three main posts on the border with Kruger National Park for use focused around rhino poaching prevention as well as other uses.

Outdoor Lab Foundation Supports Jeffco Schools Outdoor Lab

A year after coordinating a community effort to save the Outdoor Lab School of Jefferson County, the Outdoor Lab Foundation continues to be a key supporter in the success of the Outdoor Lab program.

A separate 501(c)(3), the foundation raised $66,168.79 to support the capital maintenance needs of the two sites. The funds went to re-certifying the fire systems and to putting a new roof on the Mount Evans astronomy lab. $255,613 went to local schools via the Lab Cards program to support tuition needs for students, with more than $190,000 still in reserves (and growing!) for future years.

Finally, the foundation brought over $21,000 in in-kind and cash donations to the Lab School sites for much needed projects and supplies. "We are proud of the work we are doing for the Outdoor Lab program, and we look forward to continuing to advocate for the labs helping to reach the goal of thriving and being self-sustaining," said Executive Director Shannon Hancock.

The Outdoor Lab Schools, Windy Peak and Mt. Evans, will be hosting an Open House that is open to the public on Saturday, Sept. 21 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. All are welcome and more details are available on the website at www.outdoorlabfoundation.org.

Jeffco Schools Receives Grant To Support Innovative Teacher Development

Submitted by Melissa Reeves,
Jeffco Public Schools

Jeffco Public Schools has received a $5.2 million grant from the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation that will fund professional development for middle and high school teachers. The three-year grant will focus on meaningful and innovative strategies for teacher training with a focus on professional development that is created by teachers for teachers. "We are thrilled at the prospect of being leaders in this exciting work. We believe that every child deserves an education that will prepare them for a successful future. To do that, we need to create a system that increases the effectiveness of every one of our teachers," said Jeffco Superintendent Dr. Cindy Stevenson.

Out of nine districts nationwide competing for the grant money, Jeffco was one of three districts chosen for the Innovative Professional Development grants. The money will be used to build systems, structures and resources for teachers, empowering them to design and implement their own professional learning.

"Every student matters and every teacher matters. The challenge for our team is to create a system that supports struggling teachers as well as moving good teachers to be great teachers. This grant will help us do that," said Dr. Heather Beck, Jeffco's Chief Academic Officer.

Beck said that the training for teachers will incorporate a variety of learning models including online, in person or a combination of both.

"In the past, much of professional development has been developed for the masses. Now we're building a system that will personalize learning for our teachers, just as we are personalizing learning for our students," said Beck.

Work on the grant begins during the 2013-14 school year.

Submitted by Keri Pugh, KCPN

Just because summer is coming to an end doesn't mean the fun has to! Mark your calendars for the Ken-Caryl Parent Network End-of-Summer Party, Saturday, Sept. 14 from 4 to 7 p.m. at the Bradford campgrounds. Join us as we usher in the fall with a hot dog dinner, fun activities, a fall craft and, of course, s'mores by the campfire! Keep your children out of the pediatrician's office this year by learning how to build up their immunity and fight off viruses with natural alternatives. Learn how to make a flu bomb, heal fever blisters, bring down a fever, remedy a cough, cure an ear infection and so much more. Become a healer in your own home at the Build Your Immunity workshop, the final program in the Summer Wellness Series. This event will be held on Wednesday, Sept. 11 from 7 to 9 p.m. at Aura Salon!

The KCPN Guy's Group is hosting their second event at Rox Bar & Grill on Thursday, Sept. 19, from 8 to 10 p.m. Come play some pool, drink some beer and watch Thursday night football (last half of the game) with other guys and dads from the Network!

KCPN is a volunteer-based organization with 24 years of experience connecting families and parents on Ken-Caryl Ranch. Volunteers Needed For Child Advocacy CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) of Jefferson and Gilpin Counties is recruiting volunteers for the October 2013 training class. This training class includes 15 hours of class online and 15 hours of in-person group training starting on Oct. 15. CASA volunteers are ordinary citizens who have a passion for protecting children.

Volunteers are appointed by a judge to cases of child abuse and neglect to represent the best interests of the children involved. Many CASA volunteers have full-time jobs and/or families, yet they have made time to become a child's voice in court. Your time of 15-20 hours a month will give the abused and neglected children in our community a more hopeful future. Volunteers must be at least 21. For more information, please call Susan Manfredi at 303-271-6539 or visit our website at www.casajeffcogilpin.com.

which will be posted at www.jeffco.us/town hall prior to the meeting.

Safe Medication Disposal

Submitted by Jefferson County Public Health

Do you know how to safely dispose of medications? More than 60,000 young children under the age of five are seen in hospital emergency rooms each year due to accidental poisoning. In addition, it is important to realize that flushing and putting unused medications in the trash can pollute our lakes, streams and water supplies. A recent study shows that 80 percent of U.S. streams contain small amounts of human medicine.

The best way to dispose of your unused medication is at a medication collection site. Please do not flush medication down the toilet. If you cannot get to a site, please take the following precautions when placing it in the trash:

Pour medication into a sealable plastic bag. If medication is a solid (pill, capsule etc.), add water to dissolve it.

Add kitty litter, coffee grounds or anything that would make it less appealing for children or pets to eat, to the bag.

Remove and destroy all identifying information on the prescription label on the medication containers before recycling or throwing them away.

Wrap sealed plastic bags and all empty containers in newspaper before putting them in the trash. This will help make sure that your unused medication is not easily seen and does not get into the wrong hands or eaten by a pet.

Put disposed medication in your trash can on the same day as your trash pickup. Leaving it in the trash overnight or for just one day is enough time for someone else to find it.

Jefferson County has a medication collection site at the Littleton City Government Center, 2255 W. Berry Ave., in Littleton. Dispose medication in the green collection box at the west end of the parking lot. Accepted medications include: all prescription medications, over-the-counter medications, pet medications and vitamins. The location is unable to accept liquid medications, ointments and inhalers, aerosol cans, mercury thermometers, needles, and bloody or infectious waste

You can also get more information through the Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment Hazardous Materials and Waste Division or visit www.coloradomedtakeback.info.
